Lindsey Wade, 50, of 151 Abee street, who it is charged, stabbed to death Lee "Big Crackshot" Thomas, 50, at 19 Ann street, Kingston, on the evening of January 31 during an argument over a woman, was today indicted by the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter, first degree.

Wade was represented in Supreme court by Chris J. Flanagan. A plea of innocent was entered and the case was moved over to County court for trial. Mr. Flanagan was granted 20 days to make further motions. Wade was remanded to custody of the sheriff.

It is alleged that Wade and Thomas became involved in an argument over a woman and Thomas struck Wade. Wade came back with a knife and inflicted fatal wounds.

Also indicted were John Bruce McWhinnie, 17, of 221 North Second street, Mechanicsville, and Roland Ladd, whose parents live at Brewster Junction, Maine. The two youths are being held as a police officer at the Governor Clinton hotel on the evening of February 17 when Ladd allegedly shot at a police officer who had stopped the pair to inquire as to what they were doing. Ladd allegedly fired at the officer and then disappeared. McWhinnie took refuge in the hotel and later was apprehended by Robert S. Chesterman, 33, a guest at the hotel. The two had been stopped for investigation by police officers near the hotel and when they were unable to make satisfactory answers to questions, the police officer put in a call to headquarters for a patrol car. They broke away and a shot was fired at the officer. Ladd made good his escape but later surrendered to State police and was returned to Ulster county.

Both youths pleaded innocent and will be assigned counsel. They were remanded to custody of Sheriff Smith. The grand jury filed a bill for robbery, first degree, against McWhinnie and assault, first degree, against Ladd.

Donald Dugan, Kingston, was charged with grand larceny, second degree in two counts alleged to have been committed on February 1. Charles Gaffney appeared for him. A plea of innocent was entered. Twenty days were granted to make further motions and he was remanded.

Townsend Is Indicted

Allan Drake of Woodstock, was charged with forgery, second degree. A plea of innocent was entered. The charge grew out of an alleged affair on February 17. Counsel will be assigned and the case went over to county court.

Raymond Junior Yerry of Kingston, charged with taking a fox, was indicted on a grand larceny, second degree charge, and he too pleaded innocent. The act allegedly took place on January 15. Counsel will be assigned and the case went over to county court.

Edward Harris, charged with grand larceny, second degree, for taking a bicycle from Marlborough on December 20, also pleaded innocent. Twenty days were allowed to make further motions by his attorney, Charles Gaffney. The case was transferred to county court.

Joseph Forman Resigns Democratic Post; May Meet This Week

Decision on the naming a new county Democratic leader to succeed Joseph Forman is expected at a meeting of the Democratic executive committee sometime this week.

Mayor William F. Edelmuth, chairman of the committee, who is considered by many prominent members of the party as a logical choice, said today that he would have to give "considerable thought" before accepting if the post is offered to him.

The date of the meeting had not been decided upon this morning, the Mayor said, but he thought it would be held some day during the week.

Forman, who was convicted recently in New York following a federal trial for conspiracy in an O.P.A. investigation, has forwarded his resignation.

Others mentioned as possible successors to Forman are N. Jansen Fowler, Bernard A. Culleton, who once held the post and Walter Donnarumma.

Five Persons Die In State Accidents

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—Five persons were killed accidentally upstate over the week-end. By communities:

Livingston, N. Y.—Thomas Minehan, 74, fatally burned in orchard near home. Police said matches or pipe in pocket apparently ignited clothing.

Olean—Mrs. Carl Lundquist, 76, car plunged into Allegheny river. Evans Mills—Edward Storms, 56, struck by truck during show squall.

Wellsville—Wayne H. Harris, 8, neck broken in game of "roll in barrel."

Saratoga Springs—Peter J. McLaren, 32, of New York city, truck plunged off road, down Graphite mountain and overturned.

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Many members of Congress are finding out that writing an airtight, effective labor bill is one of the most baffling tasks any law-making body ever started.

The House Labor Committee once again has postponed its first brass tacks meeting to act on general labor legislation—this time until April. The House is scheduled to start debating the committee's bill only five days later.

The reason for the continuing delays Chairman Hartley (R.-N.J.), is determined that before the 25-man committee meets, a majority of its members shall be pretty well agreed on a bill that is in line with the ideas of the House Republican leadership.

It's not easy to bring any group into harmony on such a large number of complex issues, and even if they were in harmony, it wouldn't be easy to put their desires into clear, unambiguous language.

Shades of opinion among the 15 Republican members are clashing, especially on the questions of forbidding the closed shop and industry-wide bargaining, dealing with Communist-inclined unions, and

Four Persons Die In Bombay When Carriage Is Fired

Rioting Occurs Between
Hindus and Moslems;
May Impose
Curfew

Bombay, March 31 (AP)—A communique said today that in rioting between Hindus and Moslems four persons were burned to death yesterday in a horse-drawn Victoria carriage which was set ablaze.

The dead were among the 42 killed here and 14 others were injured. Nine persons were killed and 50 wounded in similar disturbances in Calcutta and Cawnpore.

The communique, from the Bombay provincial information director said four persons managed to escape from another carriage which rioters burned.

Police Commander A. E. Caffen threatened to place Bombay under a 24-hour curfew, barring all persons from streets in the trouble areas, unless there was a "distinct improvement" in the riot situation. He threatened also to impose heavy collective fines on trouble areas.

A noon communique said authorities had conditions under control although tension continued in the areas where Sunday outbreaks occurred. Troops were placed at strategic points.

Most of the casualties in Bombay were recorded yesterday, 40 being killed and 137 wounded during widespread disorders which were quelled only after police fired repeatedly into rioting mobs. One of the two men killed today was burned to death when a crowd set his home afire.

British troops joined police in patrolling the streets today in an effort to keep order, and public gatherings of more than four persons were rigidly prohibited.

A maze of unconfirmed rumors spread throughout the city as to the cause of the disorders, which resulted in fierce gang fights, stabbings and arson, including the firing of a cotton mill.

Fighting was the heaviest in areas where Hindu and Moslem districts converged and in sections of mixed population. Fisticuffs and the hurling of soda water bottles added to the confusion.

Peace committees who toured the trouble areas in an attempt to restore order were stoned by the rioters. Inhabitants of affected areas are being evacuated by relief organizations to safer zones.

Since the disorders, stemming from long-standing Hindu-Moslem hostility intensified by disputes over the latter's status in the new independent India originated five months ago, more than 1,000 have died.

Vandenberg Moves To Give U.N. Vote To Halt Aid Plan

Thus President Would Be Forced to Stop
Helping, if U.N.
Should Direct

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R.-Mich.) proposed today to give the United Nations power, by majority vote, to halt any American aid congress approves for Greece and Turkey.

At hearings by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on legislation to authorize $400,000,000 of aid, he suggested writing in an amendment under which President Truman would be required to halt the aid when and if the United Nations directed him to.

His suggested amendment reads: "The President is directed to withdraw any or all aid authorized herein under any of the following circumstances:

"(1) If requested by any government of Greece or Turkey representing a majority of the people of either such nation;

"(2) If requested by a procedural vote in the Security Council or a majority vote in the General Assembly of the United Nations;

"(3) If the President finds that the purposes of the act have been substantially accomplished or are incapable of satisfactory accomplishment."

Across the capital, the House Foreign Affairs Committee proceeded with separate hearings. Among others, it heard:

Rep. Crawford (R.-Mich.) declared the United States should tell the Russians they must disarm or this country will use her atomic bombs and economic power against them.

Fish Gives Views
Hamilton Fish, a former Republican Member of Congress from New York, contended that if the United States intervenes in Europe it will invite similar intervention in the American hemisphere.

Fish said President Truman's plan to assist Greece and Turkey is "a dangerous departure from our traditional foreign policy and in effect sabotages the Monroe Doctrine."

"The doctrine of Monroe," Fish said, "kept European empires from the young republics of South America for 124 years. The doctrine of Truman puts the American empire on the shores of the Mediterranean in a single day."

"By economic and military intervention in Europe and elsewhere we invite similar intervention in the American hemisphere."

"If this policy of global imperialism is consummated, the doctrine of Monroe is dead."

Fish said few will disagree with the goal of stopping Communism throughout the world but that it should be stopped first here at home.

Fish said war with Russia over control of the Mediterranean is inevitable. But he said if America is to go in for global imperialism it should face realities.

"Why not ask Congress," he asked, "to declare war on the Soviet at once?"

"Fish said that because of his opposition to world Communism he is 'willing to risk granting funds for relief, rehabilitation and arms in Greece and Turkey provided the program is definitely divorced from military intervention.'"

Tourist Camp Proprietor Reports Linen Taken

George C. Thost, Shokan, who conducts a tourist camp, notified the sheriff's office at 3:40 Sunday afternoon that a car bearing an "L" license was on its way toward Kingston with some of his linen.

Leonard Belmont, county identification officer, located the car and brought the driver to the court house. A search of car and suitcase located two sheets, pillow cases, bath towels, a bedspread and a dolly. Mr. Thost came to the court house and recovered his property, but declined to press any charge and there was no arrest.

State to Eliminate Curves on Route 209

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—Award of a $140,828 contract to a Connecticut concern for reconstruction work to eliminate sharp curves in Route 209, between Wawarsing and Kerhonkson in Ulster county, was announced today by the State Department of Public Works.

Superintendent Charles H. Sells said the contract went to Peter Mitchell, Inc., of Greenwich, Conn. It calls for reconstruction of a 0.55 miles section of the highway, including grading, drainage and 24-foot concrete pavement on new location and alterations to the course of Rondout creek to eliminate the highway curves.

Poletti Praised His Killing of Il Duce, Audisio Declares

Rome, March 31 (AP)—The dark moustached Partisan who says he killed Benito Mussolini told a public meeting yesterday that Charles Poletti, war-time American military governor of Milan, had indicated approval of the executions of both Mussolini and Achille Starace, Fascist Party Secretary.

Poletti, former Governor of New York, denied today that he had either approved or disapproved of the executions.

"I could well understand their doing it," Poletti said, but he declared he made no comment on the Mussolini execution, of which he knew nothing in advance. He said both the Mussolini and Starace killings occurred before he took over in Milan and that he never passed judgment on either of them.

Walter Audisio told thousands of Italians in a Communist-sponsored meeting here yesterday how he killed the deposed Italian Duce with a submachinegun near the Swiss border April 28, 1945. The bodies of Mussolini and 16 other Partisan-executed Fascists later were strung up in a public square in Milan south of Dongo.

Audisio related that Poletti, then a United States Army Colonel under orders to set up a military government office in Milan, entered the city ahead of troops, saw the bodies in the square and said, "Okay, Okay."

Later, the Italian said, Poletti watched with avowed approval while Achille Starace, former Fascist Party secretary, was shot to death in the square.

Sullivan's Action May Bring Wider Split for Democrats

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Capitol Hill politicians generally agreed today that the backhand slap at former Vice President Henry A. Wallace and Senator Claude Pepper (D-Fla.), by Gael Sullivan, Democratic National committee executive, is likely to give impetus to a growing party split.

Sullivan's declaration that the national committee doesn't intend to call on either Wallace or Pepper for help in the 1948 campaign because their views diverge from those of the President was widely regarded as an effort to read those self-classified "liberals" out of the party.

While neither Wallace nor Pepper volunteered any immediate rejoinder, few thought the two would take the Sullivan spanking lying down.

But even if they strike back, their friends on Capitol Hill doubt that the pair will take Sullivan's crack as the signal to march off into a third party movement.

They are more likely, these friends say, to try to rally those of like views around them for a speedy effort to get Sullivan out

Bevin Asks Unification Agreement

British Request Sets Standard for German Reimbursement for Maintenance

French Are Scored

Secretary Also Criticizes French Stand About Ruhr

Moscow, March 31 (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Marshall, in his bluntest speech of the conference, denounced Soviet Russia today for delivering "an ultimatum" to the Foreign Ministers Council.

"Unless we can have a real meeting of minds and a real desire to carry out both the spirit and letter of our agreements it would be better if none were reached," the Secretary of State declared.

"We can never reach real agreement on the basis of ultimatum or immovable positions," Marshall declared in commenting on the Soviet position that unless Russia received reparations from current German production no settlements could be reached.

He spoke just after the British had circulated a proposal by Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin to the council for the unification of Germany by July 1, this year, a unification which he said should be made effective by abolishing all restrictions on movement of goods between the zones.

Unacceptable to Reds
This proposal, obviously unacceptable to the Russians, provided that before any reparations could be paid the Germans would have to pay back sums advanced for Germany's maintenance by the occupying powers and meet the cost of occupation.

At the same time that he commented on Russia's stand-pat position, Marshall criticized the French also for adopting the immovable attitude that they must have coal from the Ruhr or they would agree to nothing.

"It is not clear that the conflict inherent in these views can be reconciled, whatever position the United States may take," Marshall said.

"The Soviet delegation has suggested that it will be possible for the French to have their coal and still leave enough coal in Germany to manufacture the reparations the Soviet Government demands," Marshall continued. "We do not agree."

"The French delegation believes that after it has obtained the coal it needs from Germany and has limited the (German) Steel capacity to 7,500,000 tons it is still worth while to study the question of reparations out of current production. We do not agree."

He charged that the Russian proposal to reduce German imports in order to get reparations for Russia would reduce German food consumption to a starvation diet of 1,100 calories a day.

"Does the Soviet Government make this proposal seriously?" he asked.

"The United States is opposed to policies which will continue Germany as a congested slum or an economic poor house in the center of Europe."

Bevin's comprehensive 10-page proposal, in the form of an order of the council, would supplement and where necessary revise the Potsdam agreement.

However, the proposal, which became available for publication while the council still was in session, obviously will be unacceptable to the Russians in its main provisions, both economic and political. Among other things it would have the effect of prohibiting immediate reparations from current German production, as the Russians demand, and it calls for a federalized form of government which the Russians oppose.

Design for Directive
The plan was described in its text as a design for a directive to the Allied Control Council in Berlin for the second phase of the occupation.

Highly placed informants predicted before the meeting that Secretary of State Marshall would reject Russian demands that the Soviet Union have absolute assurance of current reparations from Germany as a price for any agreement on German economic unity.

While the United States is ready to consider requests for reparations from current German production along with other is-

Bevin Asks Unification Agreement

French Stand About
Ruhr

Moscow, March 31 (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Marshall, in his bluntest speech of the conference, denounced Soviet Russia today for delivering "an ultimatum" to the Foreign Ministers Council.

"Unless we can have a real meeting of minds and a real desire to carry out both the spirit and letter of our agreements it would be better if none were reached," the Secretary of State declared.

"We can never reach real agreement on the basis of ultimatum or immovable positions," Marshall declared in commenting on the Soviet position that unless Russia received reparations from current German production no settlements could be reached.

He spoke just after the British had circulated a proposal by Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin to the council for the unification of Germany by July 1, this year, a unification which he said should be made effective by abolishing all restrictions on movement of goods between the zones.

Unacceptable to Reds
This proposal, obviously unacceptable to the Russians, provided that before any reparations could be paid the Germans would have to pay back sums advanced for Germany's maintenance by the occupying powers and meet the cost of occupation.

At the same time that he commented on Russia's stand-pat position, Marshall criticized the French also for adopting the immovable attitude that they must have coal from the Ruhr or they would agree to nothing.

It is not clear that the conflict inherent in these views can be reconciled, whatever position the United States may take," Marshall said.

"The Soviet delegation has suggested that it will be possible for the French to have their coal and still leave enough coal in Germany to manufacture the reparations the Soviet Government demands," Marshall continued. "We do not agree."

"The French delegation believes that after it has obtained the coal it needs from Germany and has still leave enough coal in Germany to manufacture the reparations the Soviet Government demands," Marshall continued. "We do not agree."

He charged that the Russian proposal to reduce German imports in order to get reparations for Russia would reduce German food consumption to a starvation diet of 1,100 calories a day.

"Does the Soviet Government make this proposal seriously?" he asked.

"The United States is opposed to policies which will continue Germany as a congested slum or an economic poor house in the center of Europe."

Bevin's comprehensive 10-page proposal, in the form of an order of the council, would supplement and where necessary revise the Potsdam agreement.

However, the proposal, which became available for publication while the council still was in session, obviously will be unacceptable to the Russians in its main provisions, both economic and political. Among other things, it would have the effect of prohibiting immediate reparations from current German production, as the Russians demand, and it calls for a federalized form of government which the Russians oppose.

Design for Directive
The plan was described in its text as a design for a directive to the Allied Control Council in Berlin for the second phase of the occupation.

Highly placed informants predicted before the meeting that Secretary of State Marshall would reject Russian demands that the Soviet Union have absolute assurance of current reparations from Germany as a price for any agreement on German economic unity.

While the United States is ready to consider requests for reparations from current German production along with other reparations, it is not prepared to make such a commitment.

Says He Killed Mussolini

Walter Audisio, Communist underground leader who claims he killed Benito Mussolini at Dongo, Italy, in April 1945, addresses a Communist-sponsored mass meeting at the Basilica di Massenzio, near the Colosseum in Rome. Audisio, the "Col. Valerio" of the Communist underground, said, "I did not have the impression that I was shooting a man, but a lesser being." (Picture by radio from Rome.)

Poletti Praised His Killing of Il Duce, Audisio Declares

Rome, March 31 (AP)—The dark mustachioed Partisan who says he killed Benito Mussolini told a public meeting yesterday that Charles Poletti, war-time American military governor of Milan, had indicated approval of the executions of both Mussolini and Achille Starace, Fascist Party Secretary.

Poletti, former Governor of New York, denied today that he had either approved or disapproved of the executions.

"I could well understand their doing it," Poletti said, but he declared he made no comment on the Mussolini execution, of which he knew nothing in advance. He said both the Mussolini and Starace killings occurred before he took over in Milan and that he never passed judgment on either of them.

Walter Audisio told thousands of Italians in a Communist-sponsored meeting here yesterday how he killed the deposed Italian Duce with a submachinegun near the Swiss border April 28, 1945. The bodies of Mussolini and 16 other Partisan-executed fascists later were strung up in a public square in Milan south of Dongo.

Audisio related that Poletti, then a United States Army Colonel under orders to set up a military government office in Milan, entered the city ahead of troops, saw the bodies in the square and said, "Okay, okay."

Later, the Italian said, Poletti watched with avowed approval while Achille Starace, former Fascist Party secretary, was shot to death in the square.

Sullivan's Action May Bring Wider Split for Democrats

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Capitol Hill politicians generally agreed today that the backhand slap at former Vice President Henry A. Wallace and Senator Claude Pepper (D-Fla.), by Gael Sullivan, Democratic national committee executive, is likely to give impetus to a growing party split.

Sullivan's declaration that the national committee doesn't intend to call on either Wallace or Pepper for help in the 1948 campaign because their views diverge from those of the President was widely regarded as an effort to read those self-classified "liberals" out of the party.

While neither Wallace nor Pepper volunteered any immediate rejoinder, few thought the Sullivan spanking would take the Sullivan spanking lying down.

But even if they strike back, their friends on Capitol Hill doubt that the pair will take Sullivan's crack as a slap to the march off into a third party movement.

They are more likely, these friends say, to try to rally those of like views around them for a speedy effort to get Sullivan out of the office he now holds and to try for a bigger hand themselves in party affairs.

Insulating Truck Burns, Woodstock

Fire Department Prevents Chassis Damage; Had Short Circuit

Fire which started from a short circuit in the blowing unit and ignited gasoline, badly damaged the insulating truck of Bert Bishop of 174 Flatbush avenue at Woodstock Friday morning.

The truck body of the truck and the canvas along its sides were destroyed, the cab was scorched and there was some damage to the blowing unit.

Good work by the Woodstock Fire Department, which responded to a call with two trucks and threw 600 gallons of water on the blazing truck, saved the chassis from serious damage and the cab from being destroyed.

The truck, loaded with insulating material and carrying the blowing unit, had just arrived at the home of Mrs. Grace Lasher and the blower was being started to begin the work of insulating, when a spark from the blower started a fire. It was spread by some gasoline and the paper bags which contained the insulating material and then, fanned by a high wind, consumed the truck body and covering, before it could be brought under control.

The insulating material piled around the blowing unit saved the blower from being more seriously damaged.

EASTER

The beauty of Easter
The fragrance of Spring
A song in the sunshine
All herald the King.

The bunnies of Easter
In colorful clothes
Are found on the counters
Where everyone goes.
The eggs and the baskets
Are riding in comfort
In vest-pocket trucks.

The spirit of Easter
Means hope for the earth...
For peace everlasting
And God-given mirth.
There's hope for the weary
For millions oppressed
If Christ Who is risen
Remains... as our Guest.

Paltz Residents Fight for Principal Cunningham's Friends Form Organization

Friends of Raymond G. Cunningham, who militantly object to the action of the Board of Education in supplanting him as principal of the New Paltz High School, formed an organization March 21 to take up the cudgels in his behalf.

The organization, known as The Citizens' Education Group of New Paltz Central School District No. 1, is headed by Walter E. Byrnes as chairman. James M. Dearnley is secretary and Curtis Richardson, treasurer. Other members of the executive committee are Norman Baker, Louis D. B. LeFevre, Mrs. Donald Kite, Wilson Lorenson, Robert Osterhoudt, A. H. Cuthbert, Warren Kennedy, George Brannen and Mrs. T. Ellerson.

Secretary Dearnley, asked if the move was an outgrowth of the Cunningham case, said, "Not an outgrowth, it is the Cunningham case." "We want a square deal for Mr. Cunningham," Mr. Dearnley added, "with a board of education representing the taxpayers and the parents of the school district."

Although the board of education has given a contract to a new man we have not given up the ship, we aim to prove that the supporters of Mr. Cunningham are in the majority, it was stated.

It is announced that the group has called a meeting on April 8, in the theatre, where all residents of the school district will be welcomed and given an opportunity to express their views.

President Loses Several War Powers; Two May Continue

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Truman loses at midnight, the biggest single grant of power over to the White House during the war—the unlimited authority to ration and parcel out scarce materials.

However, Congress was set to stamp its final approval during the day on two measures salvaging a vestige of the second war powers act. The bulk of that measure dies at midnight, along with the six and one-half year old draft law.

The new bills, already approved by Senate and House Conference committees, were due for prompt presidential signature once they reach the White House. They provide:

An extension until October 31 of sugar rationing and price control with the Agriculture Department taking over both chores from O.P.A.

Emergency extension, until June 30 only, of allocation programs over tin, antimony, railroad freight cars, tractors built for export, Manila and agave cordage and fiber, the drug streptomycin, and cinchona (quinine) bark, plus limited controls in foreign trade.

Upon signing them, the President will abandon his authority to place any other materials under priorities, rationing or allocation, even in the event of a new national crisis arising from strikes, disasters or a revived threat of war.

Control over rubber, uranium ore, housing materials, exports, and construction—all formerly dependent on the Second War Powers Act—already have been preserved under separate postwar legislation.

Other programs, all administered by the Civil Production Administration, will die at midnight. They include:

Inventory controls, which pro-

Freeman Is Told

Two pace setters in the industry, International and Abitibi, have notified customers of this most recent boost. Since many contracts specify the price set by these two manufacturers and several others, virtually all newspapers in the United States will be hit by the increased price. The Freeman is supplied with newsprint by the Northeastern Paper Products Limited of the Province of Quebec, Canada.

No explanation is given in the announcement. However, there are two factors which may have entered into the price rise—the boost in freight rates and an immediate increase of stumpage dues levied by the Province of Quebec. Costs of forestry operations in that one area are being upped $4,000,000 this year.

hibit the hoarding and withholding of such things as washing machines and other scarce consumer goods; the allocation of steel and resins; the export quotas imposed upon the manufacture of automobiles; textile regulations; and a few other minor orders which are all that remain of the 700 industrial controls invoked during the war.

House Passes Sugar

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Racing to prevent expiration of sugar rationing at midnight, the House today approved compromise legislation continuing sugar allocation and price control until October 31.

Rifton Man Hurt When Cars Collide

Cars driven by Edward Bailey, 24 and Harold Bailey, 22, both of Rifton, were damaged when they collided about 6:15 Saturday evening, while both were traveling in the same direction on Route 213.

Harold Bailey was reported to have suffered a possible fracture of the right knee and a head injury. He was treated at the Kingston Hospital.

The accident happened in front of the Pokorny residence in St. Remy when, according to the report of Deputy Sheriff Harry Keator, Edward Bailey stopped to avoid hitting the car of Frank Pokorny, which was parked with the rear end extending into the right lane of the highway, while Pokorny was opening the gate into his driveway.

The car driven by Harold Bailey, which was following crashed into the rear end of Edward Bailey's car, damaging the rear bumper, tail light and trunk of the latter. Harold Bailey's car had both front fenders, bumper, headlight, grill and radiator damaged.

Two Escape Injury

Michael Mazzuca, 464 Delaware avenue, and another passenger of his auto, escaped uninjured when it struck a pole shortly after 3 a. m. Sunday on East St. James street. In his report to the police Mazzuca said that the person with him grabbed the wheel of the car. The pole was broken off at its base.

quota for the county was $28,000. It was stated at the office that this is the earliest that the Ulster county chapter has been able to report that it had exceeded its quota in a Red Cross campaign. With numerous wards in the city and towns in the county yet to make their reports indications are that the final total will show a handsome sum in excess of the quota.

Reports from two wards in the city and two towns of the county, just received, show quotas exceeded by nice margins in every instance. They are:

Eighth ward, Mrs. Frank Thompson, chairman. Contributions, $882; quota, $500.
Tenth ward, Mrs. William A. Frey, chairman. Contributions, $772; quota, $500.
Town of Woodstock, David Mulholland, chairman. Contributions, $1,483; quota, $1,200.
Town of New Paltz, Irving C. Barnes, chairman. Contributions, $1,296; quota, $1,050.

Ex-Beauty Queen Is Still Perplexed Over Thaw Bequest

Philadelphia, March 31 (AP)—Blonde Ethel May Moody, one-time beauty queen, still was a bit confused today as she tried to find a reason for a $40,000 trust bequest to her by Harry K. Thaw, late millionaire playboy she claims she met only once.

Miss Moody—crowned Miss

Philadelphia in 1929—had recovered somewhat from her initial "I don't believe it" statement and though still a bit nonplussed tried to recall her meeting with the unpredictable Thaw, which she said occurred at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York, in 1928.

"It was a dinner or birthday party and I don't remember if we were formally introduced. Harry K. Thaw was sitting at the table across from me. It seems to me it was one of those how-do-you-do meetings and that was all. I have never spoken to him since."

Thaw, who died at his Miami Beach home February 22 at the age of 76, left Miss Moody the largest single monetary bequest in his will, even greater than that left to his ex-wife, Evelyn Nesbit, for whom he shot and killed architect Stanford White.

The 38-year-old model has plans for use of the money whatever the reason for her getting it was.

"I'm going to begin to live now. I'll buy a lot of clothing for my children—Sonya, 12, and Harry, 8, children by a 1932 marriage—and give them luxuries they have been denied and an education."

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Busy Line

New York, March 31 (AP)—Mr. Bear, Mr. Wolf, Mr. Fox and company will not be at home to telephone callers tomorrow at the Bronx Zoo. The Telephone Company began screening April 1 telephone calls last year and stopped 2,708 of them from plugging un-amused zoo officials.

Just Like Pop

Baltimore — According to his parents, three-year-old Staley Schaefer likes the ladies.

The youngster disappeared yesterday while staying with some friends. Several hours later, three teen-age girls showed up with Staley at police headquarters and explained he had been following them.

That didn't surprise his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaefer. "You see," Mr. Schaefer remarked, "he's always had an eye for the girls."

"Just like his father," chimed in Mrs. Schaefer.

Blissful Make-Believe

Chicago, March 31 (AP)—Westbrook Sargent, 26, and Rosemary Petersen, 24, long have been engaged to marry but all the while there has been the housing problem to solve.

Surely there was a short cut somewhere that would be better than just awaiting his turn at real estate offices, Sargent decided. An idea finally came—a game, appropriately named "for rent."

Within a week he drew plans and prepared dummies for the game based upon the idea of renting an apartment. A toy manufacturing concern says it appears to be a sure-fire seller.

Working It Out

Columbus, O., March 31 (AP)—Mrs. Frances Achetermann has been signed up for $5 worth of duty as a record clerk at police headquarters.

After paying a $5 fine for "running the light," she complained that she had only 40 cents left. Patrolman C. L. Phillips suggested the clerical work was a good way to get the fine remitted.

Shirer Quits CBS
Because of Replacement

New York, March 31 (AP)—William L. Shirer, news commentator, has resigned from the Columbia Broadcasting System as a result of his replacement as news analyst on the Sunday 5:45 p. m. program.

Although C.B.S. Vice President Edward R. Murrow said in a statement last night that Shirer would be offered another program time, Shirer issued a statement after his final program saying he felt

Whitman Dies

CHARLES S. WHITMAN

New York, March 31 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and other officials will attend the funeral for Charles S. Whitman, former New York governor, to be held from the First Presbyterian Church, Fifth avenue and Twelfth street, at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

The body will lie in state today until 10 p. m.

Whitman, who died Saturday at the age of 78, will be buried Wednesday in the family plot at Williamstown, Mass.

Dewey directed that an honor guard of the New York State Police, an organization established in 1917 during Whitman's governorship, be assigned to the funeral. He also ordered flags on all state buildings flown at half staff for 30 days, beginning today.

A Republican, Whitman was elected governor in 1914 and was re-elected two years later. In 1918 he sought a third term but was defeated by the Democratic nominee, Alfred E. Smith. Governors then served two-year terms.

Whitman has been in poor health for several years, and died of a heart ailment.

Will Sponsor Mass

Catholic Daughters of America Court Santa Maria No. 164 will sponsor a Mass for a "just and lasting peace," in St. Joseph's Church Monday morning April 7 at 9 o'clock. The monthly meeting of the court will be held Thursday, April 10, 8 p. m., in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

C.B.S. "has brought my usefulness on its network to a sudden end after 10 years of regular broadcasting from here and abroad."

Murrow denied Shirer's contention he was being replaced because of his "liberal views."

Asserting the change was made by C.B.S. and not the program sponsor, the J. B. Williams Company, soap manufacturers, Murrow said "Mr. Shirer doesn't like it, and that's all there is to it."

Region 2 Workers To Get Notices on O.P.A. Liquidation

Francis X. Riley, Area Rent Director of the Office of Temporary Controls, O.P.A., 112 State street, Albany, announced today that as a part of O.P.A.'s continuing liquidation program, about 400 employees in Region II will receive 30-day reduction-in-force notices on April 1.

Director Riley also said that the reduction-in-force will leave about 2,700, compared with a peak of 12,000 in June, 1945. Region II, he explained includes New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Administrator Meader, continued Director Riley, also said rent offices and sugar offices are continuing in the same locations, but there will be a change in the enforcement organization, effective April 30. Three of the five enforcement branch offices will be closed. These offices are in Newark, Baltimore and Syracuse.

The present enforcement branch offices in New York and Philadelphia will be known as operating offices, under supervision of Regional Enforcement Executive Harold N. Cohen. The New York enforcement operation will consist of three sections—rent enforcement, sugar enforcement, and a review and disposition section for the litigation of all pending cases in decontrolled commodities throughout the region. Mr. Cohen said there are about 2,000 such cases, approximately 8,000 having been disposed of since decontrol. The 2,000 remaining involve claims totaling more than $25,000,000. The Philadelphia operating office will have only two sections—rent enforcement and sugar enforcement.

Recent passage of the deficiency appropriation bill requires complete liquidation of O.P.A. by June 30. Legislation concerning continuance of rent and sugar controls under other federal agencies is now being considered in Washington.

Methodists to Hold Cleveland Conference

Nashville, Tenn., March 27—The New York Conference of the Methodist Church has been assigned a quota of 77 delegates to the nation-wide Methodist Youth Conference to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, December 30, 1947-January 2, 1948. It has been announced by the Rev. Hoover Ruppert, director of the Youth Department, Methodist General Board of Education.

Personnel of the conference, which will be held in Cleveland's Civic Auditorium, will consist of 9,000 Methodist youth and 1,000 adult workers with youth. Mr. Ruppert said. Already permanent committees have been set up and promotion is well under way. The motto of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, "Christ Above All," has been chosen as the theme for the conference.

Plans for the meeting include addresses by Dr. E. Stanley Jones, missionary to India, writer and lecturer; Dr. Paul Quigley, pastor First Methodist Church, Houston, Texas; Dr. G. Baez-Camargo, of Mexico; and Dr. Richard C. Raines, pastor Hennepin Avenue Methodist Church, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Provision has also been made for dramatic and cultural presentations.

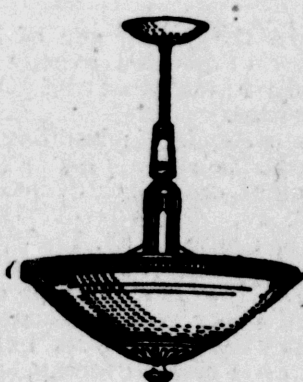

The Rev. Joseph W. Bell of the Youth Department staff has responsibility for promoting the conference. It is hoped that as many local Methodist churches as possible will be represented at the meeting, Mr. Bell said.

Quotas have been based on the number of youth enrolled and on the number of charges in an annual conference. The New York quota has been set at 69 youth and 8 adult workers.

Bonus Bill Presented

Trenton, N. J., March 31 (AP)—A long-awaited state veterans bonus plan, delayed because of disagreement over new taxes to meet costs well over $100,000,000, was finally presented to the legislature today in a unanimous commission report which omitted financing proposals. Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll's immediate reaction was opposition to any legislation which did not include means of financing. The report conceded that "the state does not have the available cash to meet the large costs," but in recommending a short-term bond issue, left the tax problem to the legislature.

Insulating Truck Burns, Woodstock

Fire Department Prevents Chassis Damage; Had Short Circuit

Fire which started from a short circuit in the blowing unit and ignited gasoline, badly damaged the insulating truck of Bert Bishop of 174 Flatbush avenue at Woodstock Friday morning.

The rack body of the truck and the canvas along its sides were destroyed, the cab was scorched and there was some damage to the blowing unit.

Good work by the Woodstock Fire Department, which responded to a call with two trucks and threw 600 gallons of water on the blazing truck, saved the chassis from serious damage and the cab from being destroyed.

The truck, loaded with insulating material and carrying the blowing unit, had just arrived at the home of Mrs. Grace Lasher and the blowing was being started to begin the work of insulating, when a spark from the blower started a fire. It was spread by some gasoline and the paper bags which contained the insulating material and then, fanned by a high wind, consumed the rack and covering before it could be brought under control.

The insulating material piled around the blowing unit saved the blower from being more seriously damaged.

EASTER

The beauty of Easter
The fragrance of Spring
A song in the sunshine
All herald the King.

The bunnies of Easter
In colorful clothes
Are found in the baskets
Where everyone goes.
The eggs and the baskets
And colorful dyes
Are riding in comfort
In vest-pocket trucks.

The spirit of Easter
Means hope for the earth...
And God-given mirth.
There's hope for the weary
In millions oppressed
If Christ who is risen
Remains... as our Guest.

Paltz Residents Fight for Principal

Cunningham's Friends Form Organization

Friends of Raymond G. Cunningham, who militantly object to the action of the Board of Education in supplanting him as principal of the New Paltz High School, formed an organization March 21 to take up the cudgels in his behalf.

The organization, known as The Citizens' Education Group of New Paltz Central School District No. 1, is headed by Walter E. Byrnes as chairman, James M. Dearnley is secretary and Curtis Richardson, treasurer. Other members of the executive committee are Norman Baker, Louis D. H. LeFevre, Mrs. Donald Kite, Wilson Lorenson, Robert Osterhout, A. H. Cuthbert, Warren Kennedy, George Brunner and Mrs. T. Elerson.

Secretary Dearnley, asked if the move was an outgrowth of the Cunningham case, said, "Not an outgrowth, it is the Cunningham case." "We want a square deal for Mr. Cunningham," Mr. Dearnley added, "and a board of education representing the taxpayers and the parents of the school district."

Although the board of education has given a contract to a new man we have not given up the ship, we aim to prove that the supporters of Mr. Cunningham are in the majority, it was said.

It is announced that the group has called a meeting on April 8, in the theatre, where all residents of the school district will be welcomed and given an opportunity to express their views.

President Loses Several War Powers; Two May Continue

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Truman loses at midnight the biggest single grant of power over to the White House during the war—the unlimited authority to ration and parcel out scarce materials.

However, Congress was set to stamp its final approval during the day on two measures salvaging a vestige of the second war powers act. The bulk of that measure dies at midnight, along with the six and one-half year old draft law.

The new bills, already approved by Senate and House Conference committees, were due for prompt presidential signature once they reach the White House. They provide:

An extension until October 31 of sugar rationing and price control with the Agriculture Department taking over both chores from O. P. A.

Emergency extension, until June 30 only, of allocation programs over tin, antimony, railroad freight cars, tractors built for export, Manila and agave cordage and fiber, the drug of strychnine and cinchona (quinine), bark, plus limited controls in foreign trade.

Upon signing them, the President will abandon his authority to place any other materials under priorities, rationing or allocation, even in the event of a new national crisis arising from strikes, disasters or a revived threat of war.

Two pace setters in the industry, International and Abitibi, have notified customers of this most recent boost. Since many contracts specify the price set by these two manufacturers and several others, virtually all newspapers in the United States will be hit by the increased price. The Freeman is supplied with newsprint by the Northeastern Paper Products Limited of the Province of Quebec, Canada.

No explanation is given in the announcement. However, there are two factors which may have entered into the price rise—the boost in freight rates and an immediate increase of stumpage dues levied by the Province of Quebec. Costs of forestry operations in that one area are being upped $4,000,000 this year.

Local firemen checked a brush fire shortly before noon today on Wilbur avenue near the city incinerator.

House Passes Sugar

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Racing to prevent expiration of sugar rationing at midnight, the House today approved compromise legislation continuing sugar allocation and price control until October 31.

Rifton Man Hurt When Cars Collide

Cars driven by Edward Bailey, 24 and Harold Bailey, 22, both of Rifton, were damaged when they collided about 6:15 Saturday evening, while both were traveling in the same direction on Route 213.

Harold Bailey was reported to have suffered a possible fracture of the right knee and a head injury. He was treated at the Kingston Hospital.

The accident happened in front of the Pokorny residence in St. Remy when, according to the report of Deputy Sheriff Harry Keator, Edward Bailey stopped to avoid hitting the car of Frank Pokorny, which was parked with the rear end extending into the right lane of the highway, while Pokorny was opening the gate into his driveway.

The car driven by Harold Bailey, which was following crashed into the rear end of Edward Bailey's car, damaging the rear bumper, tail light and trunk of the latter. Harold Bailey's car had both front fenders, bumper, headlight, grill and radiator damaged.

Two Escape Injury

Michael Mazzuca, 464 Delaware avenue, and another passenger of his auto, escaped uninjured when it struck a pole shortly after 3 a. m. Sunday on East St. James street. In his report to the police Mazzuca said that the person with him grabbed the wheel of the car. The pole was broken off at its base.

Life in Japan Described at Tea In St. James Church

Mrs. Arthur Jorgensen of New Paltz who had lived in Japan from 1912 to 1939 spoke at the annual Lenten Tea in St. James Church Friday afternoon, giving personal observations of the Japanese way of life. She also read several letters from friends in Japan telling of the hardships of the war but confirming the sincerity of many Japanese in Christian living.

She urged the women to send all available warm clothing to friends or missionaries in Japan. She explained that today's missionaries had to purchase clothing, food and fuel from the black markets in the Japanese streets, and that the people of Japan needed clothing. Fuel is rigidly rationed, she reported.

She spoke of the results of Christian education in Japan which particularly are important among the women of the country. During the war years the women were called to civilian defense jobs and to tasks outside of their own homes. This she feels is a step forward in their emancipation from the old systems of keeping the women sheltered.

Among the outstanding leaders of Japanese women Mrs. Jorgensen named Ume Tsuda who began a school in 1920 which grew into the best school in that country for teaching English. Dr. Yoshiko, a doctor of medicine who established a school for doctors and nurses; Miss Michi Kawai, national Y.W.C.A. secretary for 10 years who later organized a school for rural girls; Mrs. Tamaki Uemura, ordained minister of the Presbyterian church who was interested in the welfare of foreign students particularly from Asia; and Shizue Kato, known as the Margaret Sanger of Japan.

Mrs. Jorgensen also showed many interesting items from Japan such as examples of embroidery, silks, satins, art work on stationery, silver, and fans.

Musical Program
Mrs. Theron Culver, president of the W.S.C.S. at St. James Church, presided. Mrs. Bertrand Bishop played two piano solos: "First Arabesque," Debussy and "The Island Spell," Ireland. Her encore was a request for the "Valse for Left Hand Alone," by Vichy. Roland Heermance of Saugerties sang two groups of solos accompanied by C. Franklin Pierce, minister of music at the church. He chose "The Blind Ploughman," "The Living God," by O'Hare; "In Time of Roses," Reichard; "The Wayfarer's Song," Martin; and as an encore "Because" D'Hardelot.

Tea was served from a tea table arranged with bouquets of yellow snapdragons and lavender tapers. Mrs. Frederick Snyder assisted by pouring. Mrs. David Harris, Jr., arranged for the tea. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert Pixley, Mrs. Clarence L. Dumm, Mrs. Frederick Decker and Mrs. Julius Gifford.

WHEN HUSBAND WON'T CARVE

Dear Mrs. Post: I feel it an obligation to entertain my husband's employer and his wife who several times have invited us to dinner. Mr. Employer always carves and serves. My husband refuses to do either and we have no maid. I know they would not appreciate my getting someone in to help (even if I could find someone) and yet I would like to serve a well-managed dinner. Do you advise putting everything on the table in serving dishes and the host already cut on a platter and then handing these around or would it be better to serve the plates in the kitchen?

Answer: If you carve the roast and put it on the table before your guests arrive, it certainly will be cold. If, on the other hand, you put the already carved meat in the oven to keep it hot, then when you serve it, it will be dried up. If I were you, I would serve a meat pie or a casserole dish, either of which is delicious and requires no carving.

Earrings At 13

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been told you answered a similar problem in your column several months ago. Since we missed it then, will you please tell us whether it would be proper for our daughter, aged 13, to have her ears pierced so she can wear some of her grandmother's lovely earrings? We don't mind having the ears pierced as we understand this is coming back in style again, but we do think she is too young to wear earrings.

Answer: Here in America, earrings are at 13 unusual and unpromising because they suggest designs conspicuously unsuitable. The question is also hard to answer because it depends upon her own looks. If you think they could be becoming, she might have her ears pierced and wear small pearl button earrings or small gold hoops. But certainly no diamonds or any other jewels of value.

But, Of Course!

Dear Mrs. Post: Will it be taking too much for granted to send our baby's godparents (a married couple) his first photograph?

Answer: By all means send it.

Every hostess is proud of beautiful table linen. Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Table Linens," discusses the use of monograms, also the appropriate cloth for dinner, lunch or breakfast. To obtain a copy send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N.Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Ex-Beauty Queen Is Still Perplexed Over Thaw Bequest

Philadelphia, March 31 (AP)—Blonde Ethel May Moody, one-time beauty queen, still was a bit confused today as she tried to find a reason for a $40,000 trust willed her by Harry K. Thaw, late millionaire playboy she claims she met only once.

Miss Moody—crowned Miss

Philadelphia in 1929—had recovered somewhat from her initial "I don't believe it" statement and though still a bit nonplussed tried to recall her meeting with the unpredictable Thaw, which she said occurred at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York, in 1928. It was a dinner or birthday party and I don't remember if we were formally introduced, Harry K. Thaw was sitting at the table across from me. It seems to me it was one of those how-do-you-do meetings and that was all. I have never spoken to him since. Thaw, who died at his Miami Beach home February 22 at the age of 76, left Miss Moody the largest single monetary bequest in his will, even greater than that left to his ex-wife, Evelyn Nesbit, for whom he shot and killed architect Stanford White. The 38-year-old model has plans for use of the money whatever the reason for her getting it was. "I'm going to begin to live now, I'll buy a lot of clothing for my children—Sonya, 12, and Harry, 8, children of 1932 marriage—and give them luxuries they have been denied and an education."

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

Busy Line

New York, March 31 (AP)—Mr. Bear, Mr. Wolf, Mr. Fox and company will not be at home to telephone callers tomorrow at the Bronx Zoo. The Telephone Company began screening April 1 telephone calls last year and stopped 2,708 of them from plugging un-amused zoo officials.

Just Like Pop

Baltimore—According to his parents, three-year-old Staley Schaefer likes the ladies. The youngster disappeared yesterday while staying with some friends. Several hours later, three teen-age girls showed up with Staley at police headquarters and explained he had been following them. That didn't surprise his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaefer. "You see," Mr. Schaefer remarked, "he's always had an eye for the girls."

"Just like his father," chimed in Mrs. Schaefer.

Blissful Make-Believe

Chicago, March 31 (AP)—Westbrook Sargent, 26, and Rosemary Petersen, 24, long have been engaged to marry but all the while there has been the housing problem to solve.

Surely there was a short cut somewhere that would be better than just waiting his turn at real estate offices, Sargent decided. An idea finally came—a game, appropriately named "for rent."

Within a week he drew plans and prepared dummies for the game based upon the idea of renting an apartment. A toy manufacturing concern says it appears to be a sure-fire seller.

Working It Out

Columbus, O., March 31 (AP)—Mrs. Frances Achelermann has been signed up for $5 worth of duty as a record clerk at police headquarters.

After paying a $5 fine for "running the light," she complained that she had only 40 cents left. Patrolman C. L. Phillips suggested the clerical work was a good way to get the fine remitted.

Shirer Quits CBS

Because of Replacement

New York, March 31 (AP)—William L. Shirer, news commentator, has resigned from the Columbia Broadcasting System as a result of his replacement as news analyst on the Sunday 5:45 p. m. program. Although C.B.S. Vice President Edward R. Murrow said in a statement last night that Shirer would be offered another program time, Shirer issued a statement after his final program saying he felt

Whitman Dies

CHARLES S. WHITMAN

New York, March 31 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and other officials will attend the funeral for Charles S. Whitman, former New York governor, to be held from the First Presbyterian Church, Fifth avenue and Twelfth street, at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

The body will lie in state today until 10 p. m.

Whitman, who died Saturday at the age of 78, will be buried Wednesday in the family plot at Westbury, Mass.

Dewey directed that an honor guard of the New York State Police, an organization established in 1917 during Whitman's governorship, be assigned to the funeral. He also ordered flags on all state buildings flown at half staff for 30 days, beginning today.

A Republican, Whitman was elected governor in 1914 and was re-elected two years later. In 1918 he sought a third term but was defeated by the Democratic nominee, Alfred E. Smith. Governors then served two-year terms. Whitman has been in poor health for several years, and died of a heart ailment.

Will Sponsor Mass

Catholic Daughters of America Court Santa Maria No. 14 will sponsor a Mass for a "just and lasting peace" in St. Joseph's Church Monday morning, April 7 at 9 o'clock. The monthly meeting of the court will be held Thursday, April 10, 8 p. m., in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

C.B.S. "has brought my usefulness on its network to a sudden end after 10 years of regular broadcasting from here and abroad."

Murrow denied Shirer's contention he was being replaced because of his "liberal views." Asserting the change was made by C.B.S. and not the program sponsor, the J. B. Williams Company, soap manufacturers, Murrow said "Mr. Shirer doesn't like it, and that's all there is to it."

Region 2 Workers To Get Notices on O.P.A. Liquidation

Francis X. Riley, Area Rent Director of the Office of Temporary Controls, O.P.A., 112 State street, Albany, announced today that as a part of O.P.A.'s continuing liquidation program, about 400 employees in Region II will receive 30-day reduction-in-force notices on April 1.

Director Riley also said that the reduction-in-force will leave about 2,700, compared with a peak of 12,000 in June, 1945. Region II, he explained, includes New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Administrator Meader, continued Director Riley, also said rent offices and sugar offices are continuing in the same locations, but there will be change in the enforcement organization, effective April 30. Three of the five enforcement branch offices will be closed. These offices are in Newark, Baltimore and Syracuse.

The present enforcement branch offices in New York and Philadelphia will be known as operating offices, under supervision of Regional Enforcement Executive Harold N. Cohen. The New York enforcement operation will consist of three sections—rent enforcement, sugar enforcement, and a review and disposition section for the litigation of all pending cases in decontrolled commodities throughout the region. Mr. Cohen said there are about 2,000 such cases, approximately $600 having been disposed of since decontrol. The 2,000 remaining involve claims totaling more than $25,000,000. The Philadelphia operating office will have only two sections—rent enforcement and sugar enforcement.

Recent passage of the deficiency appropriation bill requires complete liquidation of O.P.A. by June 30. Legislation concerning continuance of rent and sugar controls under other federal agencies is now being considered in Washington.

Methodists to Hold Cleveland Conference

Nashville, Tenn., March 27—The New York Conference of the Methodist Church has been assigned a quota of 77 delegates to the nation-wide Methodist Youth Conference to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, December 30, 1947-January 2, 1948. It has been announced by the Rev. Hoover Ruppert, director of the Youth Department, Methodist General Board of Education.

Personnel of the conference, which will be held in Cleveland's Civic Auditorium, will consist of 9,000 Methodist youth and 1,000 adult workers with youth. Mr. Ruppert said. Already permanent committees have been set up and promotion is well under way. The motto of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, "Christ Above All," has been chosen as the theme for the conference.

Plans for the meeting include addresses by Dr. E. Stanley Jones, missionary to India, writer and lecturer; Dr. Paul Quiggin, pastor First Methodist Church, Houston, Texas; Dr. G. Baez-Camargo, of Mexico; and Dr. Richard C. Rains, pastor Hennepin Avenue Methodist Church, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Provision has also been made for dramatic and cultural presentations.

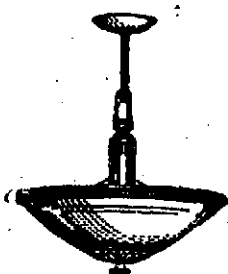

The Rev. Joseph W. Bell of the Youth Department staff has responsibility for promoting the conference. It is hoped that as many local Methodist churches as possible will be represented at the meeting, Mr. Bell said.

Quotas have been based on the number of youth enrolled and on the number of charges in an annual conference. The New York quota has been set at 69 youth and 8 adult workers.

Bonus Bill Presented

Trenton, N. J., March 31 (AP)—A long-awaited state veterans bonus plan, delayed because of disagreement over new taxes to meet costs well over $100,000,000, was finally presented to the legislature today in a unanimous commission report which omitted financing proposals. Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll's immediate reaction was opposition to any legislation which did not include means of financing. The report conceded that "the state does not have the available cash to meet the large costs," but in recommending a short-term bond issue, left the tax problem to the legislature.

Drop in Acreage Predicted

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—An average drop in potato acreage of 12 per cent this year from 1946 is predicted in a report released by the State Department of Agriculture.

In New York state a total of 88,000 acres will be planted up-state and 62,000 on Long Island, the report said. The upstate figures represent a decline of 40 per cent from the 10-year average. On Long Island, where potato acreage has been increasing in recent years, the predicted acreage represents a drop of 14 per cent from last year but an increase of 11 per cent over the 10-year average.

Mount Tremper Initiates Seven
The regular meeting of Mount Tremper Grange was held in the Grange Hall, Monday evening, March 24th, with the Worthy Master, Norman S. Wilber, presiding.

Third and Fourth degrees were conferred upon Francis Phillips, Elwyn Pym, Miss Constance Kniffen and Mrs. Tisane Gardner of Mount Tremper and the Misses Clara and Susan Walker and Richard Walker of Kingston. The committee on candidates reported favorably on the application for membership of Bob L. Davis of Mount Tremper.

It was decided to charter a bus for the occasion which will leave the Mount Tremper Grange Hall at 7 p. m. April 7. Members desiring to go on the bus are urged to contact one of the following committee members and make reservations as soon as possible. Brothers Charles Gustafson, Ernest Gardner and Haas Wager composed the bus committee.

It was decided to continue the Grange dances as the worthy master reported a very favorable attendance at the opening spring dance on March 20. The next barn dance will be on April 3, from the 28th Brothers Carleton Hoyt, Lindsey Hoyt and Norman S. Wilber and Sisters Carolyn Hegner and Helen Umhey in charge of arrangements. The worthy master appointed Brother and Sister Ernest J. Gardner, Brothers Ernest Gardner and William Spanhake as a committee to conduct dances on April 17 and May 1. After discussion and favorable vote of the members a Sanitation and Fire Safety Committee was appointed with Brother Ernest J. Gardner, chairman, Hubert Wilber, Sylvester Wells, Francis Phillips and Sister Lillian Phillips on this committee. The committee was instructed to investigate present rest rooms and fire escape facilities and to meet with the consistory of the Mount Tremper Reformed Church, who own the building, to discuss the construction of new facilities and to present their recommendations at the next regular meeting.

Sister Goldie Wager reported that she had received the necessary felt material for the top of the Grange furniture. The re-furnishing of the furniture to be completed in the near future.

The refreshment committee for the evening was Sisters Grace Nichols, Goldie Wager, Charlotte Hegner, Ruth Every and Brother Haas Wager. The Grange tendered birthday greetings and sang happy birthday to Brother George Nichols. There were 40 members present. The next regular meeting will be held in the Grange Hall on Monday evening, April 14.

Army Air Force Speeds Up Physical Exams

Due to the tremendous task of handling numerous Reservists requiring physical examinations, required prior to receiving their flight training, the Army Air Force has found it necessary to evolve a new system to speed up the physical examination.

Many Reservists, living some distance from Stewart Field, have experienced considerable difficulty in being processed for their physical examinations. An emergency plan has been initiated whereby a travelling Flight Surgeon Team from Headquarters First Air Force, consisting of two Flight Surgeons and two Medical Assistants, will circulate between reserve units physically processing applicants.

The team will be at the Flight Surgeon's Office, Stewart Field, Newburgh, N. Y., from the 28th of March until the 4th of April. This will include one week-end, normally the most convenient time for most Reservists to make their appointment.

Reservists assigned to Stewart Field may immediately notify Headquarters of the 15th AAF BU (RT), for an appointment in order of preference during the above name dates. However, Reservists who have already taken their physical examinations at Stewart Field, and are presently flying, are in no way affected by these examinations.

"Yes, I have," admitted the boy. "But I couldn't help it because I was so badly tempted." "But how did you come to have your bathing suit along?" demanded mother. "Oh, I took it with me," explained Danny, "because I thought I might be tempted."

Gun Used in Drill-Alt
The recently announced invention, by a Russian engineer, of a new "casing perforator" for oil drilling, consists of a steel gun which is lowered into the drill hole of the level of the oil-bearing stratum, Moscow explains. When the projectile is shot it perforates the wall of the casing and penetrates the oil-bearing stratum a distance of about a yard and a half before it explodes.

Ann Karrer Increases Lead to Overwhelm Schatzel by 424 Pins

Philadelphia Ace Hammers 277 Single in Final Block

Petite Ann Karrer, of Philadelphia, hasn't been the individual women's match game bowling champion of the City of Brotherly Love merely because she has a beautiful crop of red hair and her husband bakes the best pies and cakes in Philly.

The 1946 All-America ace was at the peak of her game in the final half of the 20-game $500 challenge match with Rose Schatzel before crowds at the Stenton Bowling Academy in Philadelphia and among other things she:

Won the match by 424 pins, shooting a grand total of 3841 pins against 3417 for Mrs. Schatzel.

She rolled a 277 single, winding up one game with 9 strikes in a row and throwing four more to start the next set for 13 in a row.

She averaged 203 for 10 games on her home drives, blasting a 1061 total in the final block.

Shot an even 700 for her last three games.

Definitely off the form that enabled her to whip Jean Mickey Michaels, New York state champion, by a handsome margin, Mrs. Schatzel never seriously threatened the tiny pocket-busting star.

Mrs. Schatzel's best performance game came in the final block when she posted a 5-game total of 912. By this time Karrer was operating with a huge lead.

Mrs. Karrer's 192 average was two pins under Rose's 194 against Mickey Michaels but the Hudson Valley queen was so far off her game that she could average only 171.

In the final 10 games Mrs. Karrer missed only 3 spares, whereas Mrs. Schatzel, normally a superb spare shooter, committed 13 errors. Her best game was a 201 in the second set of the first Philly block.

Shoots 277

Mrs. Karrer thrilled the huge crowd Sunday afternoon by piling up a brilliant 277 single in the third game. She opened with a double, missed the headpin for a seven in the third frame and then started off on a brilliant run of 13 strikes in a row. After tossing nine straight for her 277, she opened the next game with four more, got stung on a "high" hit and rallied with another double.

In the last three games, Karrer rolled off 277, 226 and 197 for an even 700 score.

Leading by 124 pins when the match resumed Saturday night, Mrs. Karrer quickly added to her advantage when she opened with 182 while Rose was slumping to 138. Karrer ran up her margin to 275 pins with a 966 five game score against 815 for Schatzel.

The final block attracted a tremendous crowd. At the end of two games the keglerettes were only a pin apart, 361-360, in Karrer's favor but the Philadelphia champion embarked on her sensational strike spree to roll up 700 in the last three games. Rose's last three games totaled 552, good under normal conditions, but Mrs. Karrer happened to be slightly terrific in the final trio.

The score by blocks:

Block	Karrer	Schatzel
First Block	182-179-202-233-170-966	138-201-175-144-157-815
Second Block	194-167-277-226-197-1061	191-169-179-180-193-912
Recapitulation:	Karrer's total 3841, average 192. Schatzel's total 3417, average 171.

State Fishing Stream Stocked With Record 3,500,000 Trout

Albany, March 31—Anticipating the heaviest trout fishing pressure in New York state on record during the coming season, Conservation Commissioner Perry B. Duryea announced today that a total of 3,500,000 trout, all of which were legal size or will be within the next few weeks, have been stocked by the Conservation Department since the close of the trout season last summer. The poundage stocked eclipsed all previous marks by a wide margin, he said.

Last fall's stocking included 2,150,000 brook, brown and rainbow trout averaging nearly four inches in length. This spring, 400,000 brook trout, 875,000 browns and 105,000 rainbows, all yearlings and two-year-olds from nearly 7 to 12 inches long already have been stocked in more than 20,000 miles of trout waters, Commissioner Duryea said. Scores of thousands more, including lake trout and landlocked salmon, are scheduled for later stocking in northern areas, still ice-bound, he pointed out.

Tournament Game Is Decided in Last 20 Seconds

It took two Kingston teams—the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Potters Brothers—to stage the best game to date in the Ulster-Greene county basketball tournament now in progress at the Y court.

Battling with typical intra-city rivalry, the two Y League titans, highlighted Saturday night's action with a blistering duel that saw the Vets turn back a sensational challenge 41-39.

A one-handed shot by Buddy Smith with about 20 seconds remaining broke up a spectacular ball game in which the underdog Potters overcame an 18-22 half-time deficit and grabbed the lead in the last two and a half minutes of play.

Vets Lead 12-1

The Vets, flashing a typical all-round attack, opened strongly to lead 14-8 at the quarter but Potters outscored them 10-8 in the second period. In the first five minutes of play, the Vets had run a 12-1 lead.

McGrane, of the Vets, broke a 36-36 deadlock with two and a half minutes to play with a layup shot. Bloom, Potter center, cut the lead a point with a foul conversion and Kelse sent Potters ahead 39-38. Sass made good a crucial foul shot to knot the count at 39-39 and a few seconds later Smith scored his game-winning basket. There was no scoring in the last 20 seconds.

Bloom, Potter center, led both teams in scoring. He was ably assisted by Hughes and Kelse who shared 17 points. Koch and Thomas had 9 and 8 respectively for the winners, with Murphy and Smith tossing in seven apiece.

Maines, Albany Star

A couple of former Kingston High School greats—they seem to be popping up all over the place—led the Kingston American Legion to an easy 61-40 victory over the touted Gillmore Packers of Milton.

The aforementioned Maroon luminaries—Tommy Maines and Tony Albany—scored 23 and 16 respectively to lead a powerful second half attack that turned the game into a rout. Kingston led 29-22 at the break. Ruzzo's ball handling and play making was a Kingston standout. M. Manesse was high scorer for Milton with 13 points.

Another one-sided affair saw the Marlborough Legion crush Kingston Gunlocks, 76-25, after running up a 33-13 margin at the half. Casey and Purdy shared scoring honors for Marlborough with 18 points each, while Valentine tallied 17 and Pagentine netted 13.

Nerone's 574 Electrol High

Joe Nerone rolled high triple of 574 in the Electrol League last week, stringing games of 170, 212 and 192 to nose out Tommy Berardi and Warren Neer by a single for league honors.

Nerone's high cluster came in a losing cause, his Maintenance squad dropping two sets to Assembly, who were anchored by Jimmy Burns' 523.

Neer posted 573, with 213, to lead the Turners in a 2-1 triumph over Inspection. John Sweeney's 552 was high series for Inspection.

Bob Myers knocked off 218-565 to lead Grinding in a 1-2 defeat at the hands of Mill and Drill, powered by Tom Berardi's 234-573 and Randy Kieffer's 210-539.

Tool Room best Dispatch, 2-1, Bob East hitting 531 for the winners and Ward DuBois 554 for the losers. R. Hicks led Experiment's 2-1 edge over Shipping for whom Ed Cunningham shot 498.

Steve Woyden hit 205-557 and Tony La Rocca 219-528 as Burring gained the odd set over Burring.

Factory Office set back Main Office 2-1, behind K. Woodman's 512. Harry Re shot 525 for the Main Office.

Bill Short's 488 was high for Pro-Lathe as they defeated Heat Treat, 2-1. Jake Chichelsky shot 506 for the losers.

Streams Are Stocked

Albany, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—New York state waters have been stocked with 3,500,000 trout in expectation of the state's heaviest trout fishing season. Commissioner Perry B. Duryea said the record-breaking poundage went into more than 20,000 miles of trout waters.

Thousands more, including lake trout and landlocked salmon, will be stocked later in northern waters.

Dawkins' Set Pace as Tournery Is Shifted to City Auditorium

The Ulster-Greene county basketball tournaments shifts to the municipal auditorium, Tuesday night, with an outstanding double-header scheduled to launch the final round of competition at 7:15.

Dawkins' Favorites, composed of Kingston High School's 1947 DUSO and Section Nine champions, will oppose the powerful Chez Emile quintet in one of the games.

Several former Maroon greats, including "Zeke" Zelle, now a Hartwick College ace, "Link" Crosby, Don Riehl, "Beans" Baltz, will compete against the modern crop of K. H. S. basketball stars. Crosby is now considered the most improved and outstanding player in the City League. Bob Slicker, a 6 foot 2 inch forward, along with Lawrence, sharp-shooting Hustler forward, and Culver Ten Broeck, 6 foot 4 center, figure to give the Favorites considerable argument.

Favorites Won Easily

The regular DUSO starting five will go for Dawkins. The Kias coached youngsters scored an impressive victory, in their tournament debut and calfskin experts concede them an excellent chance to win the title.

Mike Rienzo and Georgie Glaser, consistent scorers throughout the season, will team at the forwards for the Favorites, with Big Ed Weaver, top scholastic performer of the Hudson valley district at center. Joe Albany, a slick ball handler and play maker, pairs with George Ghear in the back-court.

Two standout out-of-town entries, Kerhonkson's highly regarded Otto Clippers and the Cairo American Legion, clash in the companion attraction.

Cairo, third place team in the 1946 tournament, boast of a veteran roster including Swilpa, one of the outstanding players in the tournament last year. The Cairo

Cairo Is Standout

The Cairo squad showed its mettle by edging the rugged High Falls Firemen, 39-37, last Thursday night, despite a 26-point scoring splurge by Charlie Neff. All High Falls players were over six feet tall which meant the undersized Cairo cagers had to play superlatively in height.

Otto Clippers, 42-35 victors over the speedy Pioneers of Kingston, feature a well-balanced starting array in which every man is capable of hitting double figures in scoring. The Terwilliger brothers and Harry Engle are skillful enough to score against any defense. The Clippers were beaten in the 1946 tournament opener but their seasonal record and performance to date, indicate they are determined to battle their way into finals.

MIDWESTERN BLIZZARD

Spring came to the midwest the other day with more than the lion's roar. It came with the roar of wind and driving snow, with the roar of surf on the Great Lakes. The barometer in one midwestern home where it is always carefully watched dropped to 27.87, which, in case the reader does not bother much with barometers, is very low indeed. It's hurricane low, and the mild thunder storm with which the drop was accompanied soon turned into a howling gale.

Details have been in the news—schools closed, cars stalled, travellers sleeping on cots in city halls, on hard seats in railway stations, doctors using all sorts of conveyances from fire trucks and bulldozers to saddle horses.

But the attitude of the average midwesterner deserves to be recorded. Was he mad? Well, a little. Did he wish he was in Florida or some other sunny clime? A few did. But mostly he was cheerful through his snow-shovelling, his struggles to get the car down the drive to the highway through drifts to his waist. Just one thing infuriated him. That was someone putting on a record playing "Home, home on the range." How he hated "Where seldom is heard a discouraging word, and the skies are not cloudy all day!"

"Helen Maria!" shouted the Midwesterner. "Who'd want to live in a blankety blank place like that where there's no variety in life?"

For the Midwesterner knows that, much as he often hates his climate, it is the best climate on earth for developing mental and physical energy. He knows it's the hard life and sudden changes that have made him into the man he is, and poured that strength all over his vast country.

"Live in Los Angeles? Helen Maria, NO!" he explodes. "What do those softies know about life?"

It was observed, however, that he was glad to get into the house and doze by the heat of his nice soft oil-burning furnace without any worry about a woodpile.

LAW STUDENTS EXCHANGE

Exchange fellowships between graduates of Yale University Law School and graduates of law schools in foreign countries are being inaugurated this spring. One student each from China, from France, Korea and Sweden will come to Yale and a Yale man be sent to each of these countries. More countries will be brought into the exchange as time goes on.

Here is a practical plan to develop knowledge of international civil law, making for round-the-world good will and being an important influence for peace.

JOHN BULL'S HOUSE

Visitors from England report that a bill is to be put before Parliament within a year which would give the government all profit from the sale of land or buildings. If it should pass, which is by no means certain, values would be fixed by the government at the 1939 level. The government believes that by appropriating real estate profits, funds can be acquired for the substantial payments that must be made to those whose homes and places of business were bombed by the Germans.

The building program has been stymied by lack of material. This has resulted in an acute and sustained house shortage, which, in turn, has boosted values of available buildings. The resulting profit is what the government hopes to capture by the proposed legislation.

From this it might almost appear that the lucky Englishman is the one whose home was bombed. The government will build a new house for him, or put his old one into shape. His neighbor, whose home escaped, cannot have the profit from the sale of it should he wish to better himself and move into a more desirable, newer house.

On own capital gains tax of 25 per cent on the profit from real estate sales comes heavily enough. But here, too, Uncle Sam's

STEEL AT MOSCOW

When the Moscow Conference was projected, Molotov promised that the press coverage would be the same as at similar meetings in free countries. At the United Nations in New York, coverage by press, radio, pictures was free to those who had a bonafide claim to representation. Similarly, at the Waldorf-Astoria meetings of the Council of Foreign Ministers, the press could go after the story without unusual restrictions.

It was not long before Molotov went back on his promise, limiting American coverage to 20 persons altogether, which is hardly enough, considering the variety of forms of expression in this country. The excuse given was that the Russians could not find enough living space for 73 Americans who wanted to go. Of course, in a free country newsmen find their own living space and American reporters can live in tents or Quonset huts or even on park benches if the story is worth the effort. Subsequently, General Walter Bedell Smith, the American ambassador, found room for another 16. Among those was not Johannes Steel, former news commentator on the radio, left-wing defeated candidate for member of the House of Representatives, now editor of World Reports, Inc., and of Readers Scope Magazine.

In spite of the fact that Johannes Steel was not on the list of American correspondents accredited by the State Department, he is now in Moscow. How he got there, who authorized that exception, he made in his case, is not stated. Thirty-one bona fide representative American newsmen were not permitted to attend the Moscow Conference, but Johannes Steel is there. Why?

And Johannes Steel is there as a correspondent, sending via "Press Wireless" reports from Moscow. Either the State Department made an exception of Steel or Steel is an exceptional person. What makes him exceptional? Steel's report from Moscow, dated March 24. This is his reference to President Truman's speech of March 12:

"President Truman's speech did not come as a surprise to the Russians, for they were expecting it. They knew that Secretary Marshall had timed it in advance for the opening stages of the Conference. All other interpretations to the contrary, Truman's speech has not and will not affect the course or the outcome of the Foreign Ministers Conference. The Russians consider the speech a provocation designed to sink the Conference, but they refuse to be provoked."

Steel adds a new angle to the Greek situation. He says:

"Furthermore what President Truman said was nothing new. The facts are that the United States has been in the process of taking over Greece and Turkey for the past three months. The British withdrew only after having been pushed out by the Americans. That is why British press reaction to the speech, with the exception of the Tory 'Times' and 'Telegraph' was hostile."

Now, Senator Pepper, who also sides with the Russian line, takes the position apparently that the Communist infiltration in Greece is "alleged"—a term he surprisingly used on the radio last Thursday night. Not he nor Henry Wallace has suggested that the reason the United States goes into Greece is to push out the Russians but the British. This novelty is as astonishing as Steel's presence as an American newspaperman in Moscow.

In fact, Steel suggests that the entire Truman Doctrine was designed to get the Russians to walk out of the Moscow Conference. He says: "... The question, as far as the Conference is concerned, is what happens now that the Truman speech failed to provoke a Russian walkout. The Soviets confidently expect attacks of the same character, which, they say, will all fall in their purpose."

The most amazing propaganda that has ever hit this country is over the Greek question. Every force is being used. Every little trick is being resorted to. The latest trick is pulling in the UN, which is merely a very red herring dragged across a simple issue. The United States has through UNRRA aided a great many countries. Much of this aid was used to build up a power in the Balkans. The United States proposes to aid Greece and Turkey directly on its own terms without the assistance of any intermediary.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M. D.

TOO MUCH SALT

Where the blood pressure is low, and there is constant tiredness, lack of energy, and depression of spirits, it has been found that taking sodium chloride—table salt—and eating foods rich in salt helps many of these cases. This may be because salt holds water in the tissues and it is often lack of water and salt—dehydration that causes the above symptoms. It is the fact that salt holds water in the tissues that has prompted industry to supply tablets of salt beside the drinking fountains in factories.

However, because salt holds water in the tissues and too much water in the tissues raises the blood pressure, thereby increasing tension of the nerves and blood vessels, physicians are advising that in certain mental and emotional conditions, table salt in and on food should be reduced, and also that foods rich in salt should be reduced.

I have spoken before of how part of the treatment to prevent epileptic attacks is cutting down on liquids and table salt. In the Journal of the American Medical Association Dr. Michael M. Miller, Associate Physician St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D. C., reports observations on a group of 20 patients with pronounced insomnia (sleeplessness), nervous tension, anxiety and increased emotionalism. They ranged in age from 23 to 53 years. Sixteen were men and four were women. All patients were observed for one week before being placed on a diet reduced in salt, during which time their behavior in the ward and their sleep at night were checked. They were observed for from twenty-one to forty-two days—length and character of sleep, blood pressure, weight and urine output recorded.

It was found that not only did the patients sleep better, but they were less irritable, less anxious to pass their urine, fell asleep more readily than before they were placed on a reduced salt diet. Further, the patients were more relaxed during the day, and were less excited about incidents that formerly excited them. There was also an improved ability to concentrate. These excellent results were obtained in all but three of the 20 patients.

Close Ups

By UPTON CROSE

A New American Pastime

Americans are enjoying the spectacle of a President vying with Congress to see who can kick Communists hardest, and if the kicking so far is all a matter of words, at least the sound is pleasing.

The President's declaration against Communism in government offices has inspired hope that this is the genuine clean-up at last. The first mail reaching me after his declaration was filled with a mixture of enthusiasm and "I'll-believe-it-when-I-see-it" restraint.

Less restrained, in fact openly bitter, is the Communist press, which still is crying out that a member of the Communist Party has the same right to hold a government job as a member of the Democratic or Republican Party. A skeptical House of Representatives appears determined to see that the teeth in the Truman order are not phony. Several Congressmen threaten to withhold funds from departments which fail to oust Reds promptly. This would be only one of two or three ways the House could use to get the job done. Another would be to turn the spotlight of public condemnation on department heads who beat around the bush.

The Senate, probably no less anti-Marxist than the House, nevertheless is somewhat more restrained, perhaps because many Senators have in their electorate large metropolitan areas with strong leftist influence. The difference between the two Houses is especially noticeable in the Lilliputian issue. Lots of Congressmen, coming from districts largely rural, have less reason to fear anti-Lilliputianism which anti-Lilliputianism face.

Loopholes
A Senate committee rejected without hesitation a bill of defamation the nomination of Gordon Clapp to head TVA on the grounds that the Lilliputian-Clapp administration of TVA in recent years had been friendly to Communists; but with the same evidence at hand, many a Senator walked S. rejecting Lilliputian for the vastly more powerful job of heading the Atomic Energy Commission.

If Truman aggressively backs his declaration, this may prove to be the turning point in the march of Marxism in America, at least for years to come. There are two players in the presidential order, however, if the Chief Executive wants to use them. One is his plan to leave the clean-up to department heads. Some of these officials are themselves far to the left; others have been so long enmeshed in New Deal politics they are not able or willing to recognize Communist sympathizer. Somebody will have to clean up these cleaner-uppers.

The other loophole is that the presidential order applied only to the executive branch of the government, thus cutting a clean circle around the courts. Our courts have withstood the pressure and infiltration of Communism remarkably well under the circumstances; but many a leftist has managed to climb onto the bench to dispense justice in this anti-Socialist, pro-Individualist country. You can shut your eyes and put your finger on at least two members of the supreme tribunal whose philosophy and long-time record call for scrutiny. And if one of these two is just a fuddled do-gooder who was willing to ignore a court order when he was governor of Michigan, and permit one "class" to appropriate property from another "class" by means of a sit-down, he still is of questionable fitness to dispense justice in America.

Enlarge F.B.I.
Thus, some of our courts need reclaiming, and here is a good job for a Republican Congress eager to make a name for itself.

Indication that the administration may be in earnest about getting rid of the Marxists in the executive department, is the measuring stick selected by Truman by which the accused shall be judged. If he had made proof of Communist party membership a requirement, his program would have been a comic tragedy.

"Anybody who has been following the party line must get out of the executive department," Indication that he was not willing to go all the way, however, has been in the fact that four days after his order, he still had not withdrawn the names of several far-left appointees to the Atomic Energy Commission, persons with well established records of activities sympathetic to Communists.

If the Republicans want to hold the initiative in their fight on Red subversion they must come up soon with legislation outlawing Communism, and must back it up with a demand for an enlarged F.B.I. and for an active anti-Communist Justice Department. (Copyright 1947 by John F. Dille Co.)

United States Is Not First to By-Pass United Nations in Various Matters

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, March 31.—Certain groups in America have suddenly become concerned about the alleged "by-passing" of the United Nations by this country in connection with the proposed "stop Communism" policies of the government of the United States.

But this concern is rather belated and seems to ignore the realistic fact that the United Nations organization has been deliberately by-passed by France, Russia, Great Britain, Czechoslovakia, Poland and other countries through formal treaties of alliance which call for direct military action without regard to the U.N.

The various bilateral treaties which Russia has made with France and Balkan countries call for military steps in the event of aggression by unnamed countries.

The U.N. also was supposed to set up an international police force to preserve peace but Russia has blocked action there. It has made the Security Council helpless to do anything to combat aggression anywhere.

What has happened is that every government, including the United States, has avoided telling all the truth to the public about the condition of the U.N. and its limited powers. The veto power has been publicized and the Truman administration assumed that everyone knew Greece and Turkey would collapse and be overrun by Communist forces before the U.N. could do anything, even in the way of formal investigation.

Only a few days ago Albania, which is dominated by Russia, was accused by some countries of laying mines in the Adriatic which caused a loss of many lives on a British destroyer, but the Soviet veto blocked any U.N. action in redress.

Truman Deletes Kilian From List

Officer's Name Is Taken From Promotion Paper

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Truman today deleted the name of Lt. Col. James A. Kilian, former commander of the Litchfield replacement depot, from an army promotion list.

Kilian's name was included originally in a list of 683 lieutenant colonels submitted to the White House by the War Department for promotion to the rank of full colonel. The president removed Kilian's name before sending the list to the Senate for action.

Kilian was convicted by court martial of permitting "cruel" punishment of enlisted men detained at Litchfield in England during the war. The sentence was handed down August 29, 1946, and the case is now pending on appeal.

Kilian was sentenced to be reprimanded and to pay a fine of $500. The Senate previously held up action on a promotion list because Kilian's name was included.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross in announcing the president's action, "old reporters": "Col. Kilian's name was on the list. It is on there no longer. The president took it off."

He explained that under the present laws the War Department was required to submit the names of officers eligible for promotion by reason of seniority.

War Secretary Patterson is advocating legislation which would permit the army to select men for promotion on a basis of merit.

Play Review

by SYLVESTER HOWARD

When James Mason appeared in flowing white robes in the play "Bathsheba," the audience whistled. He had many beautiful costumes during the evening; each one designed to bring his dark, handsome body an appropriate garb. Although "Bathsheba" is a play about King David and his breaking of the Mosaic law, the chief event of the evening was seeing Mr. Mason luxuriating sprawled on a couch eating grapes.

The theatre is a place of entertainment. One of the more delightful things of life is a magnificent human being. When such a creature is in the theatre, no doubt there is a certain entertainment value. If Mr. Mason had wished merely to give the American public the opportunity to see him dressed up as a king, he has succeeded. If he wished to give us a chance to see what he is as an actor, he has failed. The audience was obviously delighted with him as a person, but the theatre is more than a place for personal exhibition. "Bathsheba" tells the story of King David's illicit love for the wife of a captain in his army. That captain, Uriah, is so overwhelmed with admiration for his king that he will not believe the story of his evil. David is filled with remorse at having betrayed the young man, but Uriah goes to his death believing that his king could do no wrong.

The play emphasizes the human weakness of kings. David is shown to be a luxury loving man with little respect for the law of God or of the nation. It is probably impossible to know what he was actually like, but one gets the feeling that the portrait was made to fit Mr. Mason's talents. He is not an imposing man. He looks as though he were a man for witty drawing room comedy. Consequently, the play is filled with wise cracks and with bits of characterization to show that David was not a heroic king. The result seems to show that Mr. Mason is not a heroic actor.

Except for the king, the other people were nothing more than stage props. Everyone more splendid than the king. The sets were extravagant, as becomes an oriental court, and pretty girls floated in and out. As a pageant, it was easy to look at. Pamela Kellins as Bathsheba had very little to do, the more important roles going to Phil Arthur as Uriah, and Thomas Chalmers as the king's adviser. Everything, however, was subordinated to the star. Mr. Mason has finally come to New York. It is too bad he could not have chosen a better play.

500 Snakes Captured
Okeene, Okla., March 31 (AP)—Rattlesnake hunters, most of them armed only with forked sticks, captured nearly 500 of the reptiles yesterday in the Gyp Hills of northwest Oklahoma. The rattlesnake roundup, sponsored annually by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, attracted 2,000 persons from 17 states. Only one snakebite victim was reported and a physician said his wound was minor. The Junior Chamber of Commerce pays 50 cents a pound for the rattlers and sells them to circuses, zoos and laboratories. The hunters generally catch the snake by placing a forked stick behind its head, then picking it up and placing it in a sack or cage.

Appropriation Bill Blocks House and Easter Recess

Washington, March 31 (AP)—A $2,471,498,548 appropriation bill including the first big step in a Republican drive against government "press agents" stands today between the House and an Easter recess.

If it's passed and sent to the Senate by tomorrow evening, the House will adjourn Wednesday for a one-week holiday, returning on Thursday, April 10.

While there was likelihood of long debate over several provisions of the bill, House leaders were confident they could get it behind them on schedule and get their branch out of town for the first vacation since Congress convened early in January.

The Senate, still deep in debate on David E. Lilienthal's nomination to head the Atomic Energy Commission and with President Truman's Greek-Turkish aid program almost ready for consideration, plans only a long Easter week-end beginning Thursday night.

The debate-provoking provisions of the House appropriation bill, a deficiency measure financing miscellaneous agencies for the current fiscal year, include these:

1. An order directing the Veterans Administration to reduce the number of its public relations employees from 281 to 100.

2. A cut of more than half a billion dollars in VA allotments, mainly from the pension fund and from funds for benefit payments under the GI Bill of Rights.

3. Refusal to appropriate additional money for the National Labor Relations Board, whose 1948 allotment was cut sharply in a separate bill passed by the House last week but still pending in the Senate.

4. Rejection by the appropriations of a Budget Bureau request for funds to pay court-approved salary claims of three former federal workers fired in 1943 at Congressional insistence. The three are Goodwin B. Watson, Robert Morss Lovett and William E. Dodd, Jr. In refusing the claims, aggregating $2,158, the committee ignored a Supreme Court ruling.

Verdict Is Returned Regarding Farm Sale
An action in fraud involving a question of sale of a Clintondale fruit farm was tried in Supreme Court and a verdict was returned Friday. Louis Como and Samuel Edelson of New York brought an action against Herbert L. Ackerman and others alleging that fraud was involved in the sale of the farm property. The questions submitted to the jury, three in number, were whether there had been 3950 fruit trees on the farm, all bearing but 700, and if not whether there was the element of fraud involved. The jury answered the first question to the effect that the trees were as represented, precluded any answers to the remaining questions. Arthur Ames appeared for plaintiff and Peter H. Harp for defendant.

All jurors were excused for the term by Supreme Court Justice Roscoe W. Elsworth and court recessed until 11 o'clock this morning.

closed since workers are U.M.W. members. Youngstown, Ohio, steel sources also expected some reduction in output.

Lexington, Ky., where little coal has been delivered recently, faced a shortage. Many dealers said they had only two to four days supply on hand. Officials said the situation was not expected to become serious if mild weather prevails.

A spokesman for the Pennsylvania Railroad said that line would not be critically affected by the mine shutdown but that some train crews would be laid off since they would not be needed to haul coal from the mines.

"Not Much Hardship"
A leader of the Association of Western Railroads said at Chicago, however, the shutdown "won't bring much hardship."

The mourning period, which Lewis contended is provided for in the U.M.W. contract, was labeled a "strike" by Walter Thurmond of Charleston, W. Va., secretary of the Southern Coal Producers Association. He called the work stoppage "a peculiar method of paying respect to the dead."

In Portland, Ore., Sidney Woodbury, president of the Chamber of Commerce, urged Lewis in a telegram to ask miners to continue work and donate their wages to the families of Centralia victims.

The effect of the U.M.W. work stoppage on normal coal production this week will be limited by the fact that tomorrow is a traditional miners' holiday in honor of Past President John Mitchell.

The two-day holiday which falls during the mine shutdown. Since miners do not work on Sundays and about half are idle on Saturday, the full effect of the shutdown will be felt only on Wednesday.

The miners' holiday tomorrow was originally called in observance of the miners' winning of the eight-hour day April 1, 1898. Later, however, they called it "Mitchell-Lewis Day" in tribute to the union leaders.

sues, these sources said, Marshall is not willing to deal with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov on the basis of a "virtual ultimatum."

In addition to calling for Germany to be made self-sufficient, the Bevin plan provides for repayment of sums advanced to Germany by the controlling powers.

"Repayment of sums advanced by the controlling powers on account of import requirements of the population of Germany shall be the first charge on Germany's foreign exchange resources after her essential needs have been met," Bevin's proposal set forth.

"The controlling powers will furnish the appropriate German central administration with an agreed statement as of June 30, 1947, of any sum owing to them under this head."

Patrolman Saves Woman From Suicide Jump
New York, March 31 (AP)—A young woman who refused to give her name or any information about herself was prevented from jumping from the Manhattan Bridge today by Patrolman Frank Mitchell.

Mitchell said he caught the woman, a blue-eyed brunette about 22 years of age, as she had one leg slung over the rail of the bridge, which connects Brooklyn and Manhattan. He quoted her as saying, "leave me alone. I want to die."

Robert May, 23, who gave no address, said he had seen the young woman this morning in a drug store and, when she told him she was ill, took her to Roosevelt Hospital. She refused to enter the hospital, however, he said, and he followed her to a subway and then to the bridge, where he called the patrolman.

Strike Bill Is Offered
Washington, March 31 (AP)—Legislation aimed at heading off the threatened nationwide telephone strike April 7 was introduced today by Rep. Hartley (R-N. J.), chairman of the House Labor committee. The bill would permit the attorney general to obtain an injunction to block a strike. It also provides for cancellation for a 30-day period after an injunction is issued by a federal judge. The labor committee will start consideration of the legislation tomorrow.

Life in Japan Described at Tea In St. James Church

Mrs. Arthur Jorgensen of New Paltz who had lived in Japan from 1912 to 1939 spoke at the annual Lenten Tea in St. James Church Friday afternoon, giving personal observations of the Japanese way of life. She also read several letters from friends in Japan telling of the hardships of the war but confirming the sincerity of many Japanese in Christian living.

She urged the women to send all available warm clothing to friends or missionaries in Japan. She explained that today's missionaries had to purchase clothing, food and fuel from the black market in the Japanese streets, and that the people of Japan needed clothing. "It is rigidly rationed," she reported.

She spoke of the results of Christian education in Japan which particularly are important among the women of the country. During the war years the women were called to civilian defense jobs and to tasks outside of their own homes. This she feels is a step forward in their emancipation from the old systems of keeping the women sheltered.

Among the outstanding leaders of Japanese women Mrs. Jorgensen named Ume Tsuda who began a school in 1920 which grew into the best school in that country for teaching English. Dr. Yoshida, a doctor of medicine who established a school for doctors and nurses; Miss Michi Kawai, national Y.W.C.A. secretary for 10 years who later organized a school for rural girls; Mrs. Tamaki Uemura, ordained minister of the Presbyterian church who was interested in the welfare of foreign students particularly from Asia; and Shizue Kato, known as the Margaret Sanger of Japan.

Mrs. Jorgensen also showed many interesting items from Japan such as examples of embroidery, silks, satins, art work on stationery, silver, and fans.

Musical Program

Mrs. Theron Culver, president of the W.S.C.S. at St. James Church, presided. Mrs. Bertrand Bishop played two piano solos: "First Arabesque" by Debussy and "The Island Spell" by Ireland. Her encore was a request for the "Valse for Left Hand Alone," by Vichy. Roland Heermance of Saugerties sang two groups of solos accompanied by C. Franklin Pierce, minister of music at the church. He chose "The Blind Ploughman," "The Living God," by O'Hare, "In Time of Roses," Reichard, "The Wayfarer's Song," Martin; and as an encore "Because" D'Hardelot.

Tea was served from a tea table arranged with bouquets of yellow snapdragons and lavender tapers. Mrs. Frederick Snyder assisted by pouring. Mrs. David Harris, Jr., arranged for the tea. She was assisted by Mrs. Robert Pixley, Mrs. Clarence L. Dunn, Mrs. Frederick Decker and Mrs. Julius Gifford.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

WILEN HUSBAND

Dear Mrs. Post: I feel it an obligation to entertain my husband's employer and his wife who several times have invited us to dinner. Mr. Employer always carves and serves. My husband refuses to do either and we have no maid. I know they would not appreciate my getting someone in to help (even if I could find someone) and yet I would like to serve a well-managed dinner. Do you advise putting everything on the table in serving dishes and the roast already cut on a platter and then handing these around or would it be better to serve the plates in the kitchen?

Answer: If you carve the roast and put it on the table before your guests arrive, it certainly will be cold. If, on the other hand, you put the already carved meat in the oven to keep it hot, then when you serve it, it will be dried up. If I were you, I would serve a meat pie or a casserole dish, either of which is delicious and requires no carving.

Earrings At 15

Dear Mrs. Post: I have been told you answered a similar problem in your column several months ago. Since we missed it then, will you please tell us whether it would be proper for our daughter, aged 13, to have her ears pierced so she can wear some of her grandmother's lovely earrings? We don't mind having the ears pierced as we understand this is coming in style again, but we do think she is too young to wear earrings.

Answer: Here in America, earrings are at 13 unusual and unpromising because they suggest designs conspicuously unsuitable. The question is also hard to answer because much depends upon her own taste. If you think they could be becoming, she might have her ears pierced and wear small pearl button earrings or small gold hoops. But certainly no diamonds or any other jewels of value.

But, Of Course!

Dear Mrs. Post: Will it be taking too long to mention to you our baby's godparents (a married couple) his first photograph?

Answer: By all means send it.

Every hostess is proud of beautiful table linen. Mrs. Post's leaflet, "Table Linen," discusses the use of monograms also the appropriate cloth for dinner, lunch or breakfast. To obtain a copy send 5 cents in coin and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 95, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

U.N. Faces Busy Week; Palestinian Case May Be Filed

Final Vote on U. S. Plan to Administer Japanese Island Will Be Taken

Lake Success, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—The United Nations today moved into a busy week which promised to bring formal filing of the Palestine case and a final vote on the American plan to take over the Japanese mandated islands.

Approval of a special general assembly session by Russia, France and China appeared to be the only condition holding up Great Britain's long-anticipated presentation of the explosive Holy Land question to the U. N.

The United States earlier agreed to the step and Secretary-General Trygve Lie's office was awaiting sanction from the other three major-power delegates, who had referred the matter to their home governments. With approval by the trio, Britain said she would file the case asking for the special session. Lie then will poll the 55 member nations.

No difficulty was expected in getting the necessary 28 concurring votes for the special session. The date of the meeting will depend on the time required for all this procedure, but some observers believed it might be as early as May 1.

It was learned that the British note to the U. N. would make only two points—ask for the special session to set up machinery for handling the case, and ask the assembly to take up the issue at its regular meeting in September.

On the Pacific Islands case, American officials were confident that the security council would reach a vote at its meeting on Wednesday.

Actually there has been no direct opposition to the United States plan for taking over the 634 islands comprising the Marshalls, Marianas and Carolines under U. S. trusteeship, with Washington as sole administrator. The terms would amount to virtual annexation.

Today's calendar listed a closed meeting (3 p. m.) of the working committee of the Atomic Energy Commission, where France was expected to offer a compromise resolution designed to bring together Russia and the majority over the work program.

Bard College to Sponsor World Student Conference

Annandale-on-Hudson, March 31 (AP)—"What Has Happened to the Four Freedoms" will be the subject of an inquiry by a world student conference to be held at Bard College on the week-end of April 12. (Representatives from more than 24 countries have indicated their intention of participating.)

Isador Lubin, economic adviser to President Roosevelt and Ferdinand Eberstadt, Wall Street investment banker, will address the general sessions. The discussions will be carried on primarily by students from many countries who will present first hand information. On the second anniversary of the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt, a pilgrimage is to be made by the delegates to the nearby estate at Hyde Park to lay a wreath on the grave of the late president.

Russia Has No Students
The only major country not represented will be the Soviet Union. In reply to the invitation which was extended by the college, the Soviet Embassy in Washington stated that they could not participate, since no Soviet students are in this country.

The conference, sponsored by the Social Science Division of Bard College, will attempt to find the status of the Four Freedoms two years after the end of the war. Its aims is to break down the barriers between nations and promote understanding of the problems of other countries.

Simultaneous Sessions
Four commissions will be in simultaneous session, probing into the problems of each of the Freedoms. Moderating the commission to study the Freedom from Fear will be Dr. Felix E. Hirsch, one-time political editor of the Berliner Tageblatt, and at present professor of history at Bard. Dr. Adolf Strumthal, noted economist and former editor of International Information, will lead the seminars of the commission on the Freedom from Want.

A Polish lawyer and specialist on information, Eva R. Hofberg, will head the commission on the Freedom of Speech. The Reverend Frederick Quentin Chafer, theologian and professor of religion at Bard, has been named to direct the discussions on the Freedom of Religion.

"America's Contribution to the Four Freedoms" is the subject of the opening address to be given by Ferdinand Eberstadt, who served as assistant to Owen D. Young at the Reparations Conference in 1929 and vice-chairman of the War Production Board. On the second day, Isador Lubin who was a representative of the United States at the 1945 Moscow conference will speak on the "World Prospects of the Four Freedoms."

Rosenau Is Chairman
James Rosenau of Bard, chairman of the conference, reported that delegates would be present from countries as distant as Burma and Australia. Although he expressed regret that the Soviet Union would not be represented, Mr. Rosenau said: "We will have students from many areas which constitute problems for the United Nations. For example, an Arab and a Zionist will report on the Palestinian question."

Helping in the organization of the conference have been Bard students from Austria, Argentina, China, Holland, England, Switzerland, France, Greece, Egypt, and Australia.

Iceland Has Volcano
Reykjavik, Iceland, March 31 (AP)—Sightseers flocked to get a look at blazing Mount Hekla today, while geologists set up stations near the 4,764-foot volcano in expectation that the eruption which began Saturday might continue for several months. The flaming peak—in eruption for the first time since 1845—continued to toss thousands of tons of lava, rocks and ashes high into the air, spreading a heavy pall over a wide area to the south, making coastal navigation difficult and polluting drinking water. In Copenhagen, some 1,250 miles away, a fine rain of dust spread over the city. Scientists attributed it to the eruption of Hekla.

'Timid Soul' Drops His 5 Cents Anyway

"The Timid Soul," made famous through the Webster cartoon, must have paid Kingston a visit.

One of the standards, upon which will be mounted parking meters, was found to be in the wrong location and when it was torn up city employees found five cents in the tube. Someone with a "super" conscience apparently parked a car by the standard and although the meters have not yet been installed, must have dropped his nickel down the pipe upon which the meter will eventually be placed.

Furthermore, Mrs. Powers advises every Home Bureau member to take advantage of her privilege and her responsibility during the coming month to get to the office an expression of her requests for lessons next year. Any educational project is acceptable that fulfills the aim of the Extension Service which is the improvement of the home and family life.

Groups of women who cannot get out during the day time are now organizing to meet for evening classes.

Army Air Force Speeds Up Physical Exams

Due to the tremendous task of handling numerous Reservists requiring physical examinations, required prior to receiving their flight training, the Army Air Force has found it necessary to evolve a new system to speed up the physical examination process. Many Reservists, living some distance from Stewart Field, have experienced considerable difficulty in being processed for their physical examinations. An emergency plan has been initiated whereby a travelling flight surgeon team from the flight surgeon's office, Fort Belvoir, Ill., will be sent to Stewart Field, consisting of two flight surgeons and two medical assistants, will circulate between reserve units physically processing applicants.

The team will be at the flight surgeon's office, Stewart Field, Newburgh, N. Y., from the 28th of March until the 4th of April. This will include one week-end, normally the most convenient time for most Reservists to make their appointment.

Reservists assigned to Stewart Field may immediately notify Headquarters of the 115th AAF BU (RT), for an appointment in order of preference during the above named dates. However, Reservists who have already taken their physical examinations at Stewart Field, and are presently flying, are in no way affected by these examinations.

Unions Seek Split
Unionized workers on Mexico's National Airways have arranged to cooperate with unionists of Cuba in an all-Continental drive to get Puerto Rico made independent from the United States, Mexico City reports. They are also joining Guatemalan workers in demands that Britain cede Belize, British Honduras, to Guatemala.

Little Danny had been strictly forbidden to go swimming in the river because of the danger. But one day he came home with wet hair. "You've been swimming, Danny," scolded mother. "Yes, I have," admitted the boy, "but I couldn't help it because I was so badly tempted." "But how did you come to have your bathing suit along?" demanded mother. "Oh, I took it with me," explained Danny, "because I thought I might be tempted."

Ann Karrer Increases Lead to Overwhelm Schatzel by 424 Pins

Philadelphia Ace Hammers 277 Single in Final Block

Petite Ann Karrer, of Philadelphia, hasn't been the individual women's match game bowling champion of the City of Brotherly Love merely because she has a beautiful crop of red hair and her husband bakes the best pies and cakes in Philly.

The 1946 All-America ace was at the peak of her game in the final half of the 20-game $500 challenge match with Rose Schatzel before crowds at the Stenton Bowling Academy in Philadelphia and among other things she:

Better Bowling

By HILLY SIXTY

She rolled a 277 single, winding up one game with 9 strikes in a row and throwing four more to start the next set for 13 in a row. She averaged 203 for 10 games on her home drives, blasting a 1061 total in the final block.

Shot an even 700 for her last three games. Definitely off the form that enabled her to win Jean Mickey Michaels, New York state champion, by a handsome margin, Mrs. Schatzel never seriously threatened the tiny pocket-busting star.

Mrs. Schatzel's best performance game came in the final block when she posted a 5-game total of 912. By this time Karrer was operating with a huge lead.

Mrs. Karrer's 192 average was two pins under Rose's 194 against Mickey Michaels but the Hudson Valley queen was so far off her game that she could average only 171.

In the final 10 games Mrs. Karrer missed only 3 spares, whereas Mrs. Schatzel, normally a superb spare shooter, committed 13 errors. Her best game was a 201 in the second set of the first Philadelphia individual match game champion for six years.

Shoots 277
Mrs. Karrer thrilled the huge crowd Sunday afternoon by piling up a brilliant 277 single in the third game. She opened with a double, missed the headpin for seven in the third frame and then started off on a brilliant run of 13 strikes in a row. After tossing nine straight for her 277, she opened the next game with four more, got stuck on a "high" hit and a pin apart, 361-369 in Karrer's favor but the Philadelphia champion embarked on her sensational strike spree to roll up 700 in the last three games.

Rose's last three games totalled 552, good under normal conditions, but Mrs. Karrer happened to be slightly terrific in the final trio.

The score by blocks:
Third Block
Karrer 182-179-202-233-170-966.
Schatzel 138-201-175-144-157-815.

Fourth Block
Karrer 194-167-277-226-197-1061.
Schatzel 191-169-179-180-193-912.

Recapitulation: Karrer's total 3841, average 192; Schatzel's total 3417, average 171.

The prominent sports writer whose daily columns are often among the most controversial in the country, has taken a fancy to bowling and is expected to devote part of his speech to that subject.

Thomas Davitt, president of the Kingston Athletic Association which is sponsoring the testimonial reported a brisk sale of tickets.

The K.A.A. president pointed out that the testimonial is open to all sports minded citizens of Kingston.

"The testimonial is not confined to bowlers," Davitt said. "The K.A.A. is anxious to give Mrs. Schatzel a real schoff for her trip to Grand Rapids or the W.B.C. Sweepstakes finals on April 10. She has done a grand job of publicizing Kingston bowling and the city itself and we feel she is entitled to a real send off. We invite every sports minded citizen to help in putting on a real show."

State Fishing Stream Stocked With Record 3,500,000 Trout

Albany, March 31—Anticipating the heaviest trout fishing pressure in New York state on record during the coming season, Conservation Commissioner Perry B. Duryea announced today that a total of 3,530,000 trout, all of which were legal size or will be within the next few weeks, have been stocked by the Conservation Department since the close of the trout season last summer. The poundage stocked eclipsed all previous marks by a wide margin, he said.

Last fall's stocking included 2,100,000 brook, brown and rainbow trout averaging nearly four inches in length. This spring, 400,000 brook trout, 875,000 browns and 105,000 rainbows, all yearlings and two-year-olds from nearly 7 to 12 inches long already have been stocked in more than 20,000 miles of waters. Scores of thousands more, including lake trout and landlocked salmon, are scheduled for later stocking in northern areas, still ice-bound, he pointed out.

Trout by Carloads
The department's fish-transportation facilities were taxed to the limit in carrying out the record project this spring, according to O. R. Kingsbury, supervisor of fish distribution. The special railway fish Pullman, to a split verdict over the Atlantic City Y. No. 1 took three from Pontiac behind Mathe's 554, Scott Vining had 516 for Pontiac.

Seelbach clicked 509 as Ertels edged Knitting Mills, 2-1. M. Tompkins' 470 was high for the Mills.

Streams Are Stocked
Albany, N. Y., March 31 (P)—New York state waters have been stocked with 3,530,000 trout in expectation of the state's heaviest trout fishing season. Commissioner Perry B. Duryea said the record-breaking poundage went into more than 20,000 miles of trout waters. Thousands more, including lake trout and landlocked salmon, will be stocked later in northern waters.

Tournament Game Is Decided in Last 20 Seconds

It took two Kingston teams—the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Potters Brothers—to stage the best game to date in the Ulster-Greene county basketball tournament now in progress at the Y court.

Battling with typical intra-city rivalry, the two Y League titans, highlighted Saturday night's action with a blistering duel that saw the Vets turn back a sensational challenge 41-39.

A one-handed shot by Buddy Smith with about 20 seconds remaining broke up a spectacular half game in which the underdog Potters overcame an 18-22 half-time deficit and grabbed the lead in the last two and a half minutes of play.

Vets Lead 12-1
The Vets, flashing a typical all-around attack, opened strongly to lead 14-8 the quarter but Potters outscored them 10-8 in the second period. In the first five minutes of play, the Vets had run a 12-1 lead.

McGrane, of the Vets, broke a 36-36 deadlock with two and a half minutes to play with a layup shot. Bloom, Potter center, cut the lead to a point with a foul conversion and Kelse sent Potters ahead 39-38.

Sass made good a crucial foul shot to knot the count at 39-39 and a few seconds later Smith scored his game-winning basket. There was no scoring in the last 20 seconds.

Bloom, Potter center, led both teams in scoring. He was ably assisted by Hughes and Kelse who shared 17 points. Koch and Thomas had 9 and 8 respectively for the winners, with Murphy and Smith tossing in seven apiece.

Malone, Albany Star
A couple of former Kingston High School greats they seem to be popping up all over the place—led the Kingston American Legion to an easy 61-40 victory over the touted Guilmore Packers of Milton.

The aforementioned Maroon Legionnaires, Tommy Malone and Tony Albany—scored 23 and 16 respectively to lead a powerful second half attack that turned the game into a rout. Kingston led 29-22 at the break. Ruzzo's ball handling and play making was a Kingston standout. M. Manneese high scorer for Milton with 19 points.

Another one-sided affair saw the Marlborough Legion crush Kingston Guilnicks, 76-25, after running up a 33-13 margin at the half.

Casey and Purdy shared scoring honors with 18 and 15 points each, while Valentine tallied 17 and Pagentine netted 13.

Neer posted 573, with 213, to lead the Turkeys in a 2-1 triumph over Inspection. John Swensen's 532 was high series for Inspection.

Dawkins' Set Pace as Tourney Is Shifted to City Auditorium

The Ulster-Greene county basketball tournaments shifts to the municipal auditorium, Tuesday night, with an outstanding double-header scheduled to launch the final round of competition at 7:15.

Dawkins' Favorites, composed of Kingston High School's 1947 DUSO and Section Nine champions, will oppose the powerful Chez Emile quintet in one of the games.

Several former Maroon greats, including "Zeke" Zelle, now a Hurlock College ace, "Link" Crosby, Don Rich, "Beans" Baltz, will compete against the modern crop of K. H. S. basketball stars.

Crosby is now considered the most improved and outstanding player in the City League. Bob Siskler, a 6 foot 2 inch forward, along with Lawrence, sharp-shooting Hustler forward and Culver Ten Brock, 6 foot 4 center, figure to give the Favorites considerable argument.

Favorites Won Easily
The regular DUSO starting five will go for Dawkins: Th. Kinconed youngsters scored an impressive victory, in their tournament debut and callous experts concede them an excellent chance to win the title.

Mike Rienzo and George Glaser, consistent scorers throughout the season, will team at the forwards for the Favorites, with Big Ed Weaver, top scholastic performer at the Hudson valley district in center, Joe Albany, a slick ball handler and play maker, pairs with George Gheur in the backcourt.

Two standout out-of-town entries, Kerhonkson's highly regarded Otto Clippers and the Cairo American Legion, clash in the companion attraction.

Cairo, third place team in the 1946 tournament, boast of a veteran roster including Swipa, one of the outstanding players in the tournament last year. The Cairo quintet has two other formidable marksmen in the Engelmann brothers.

Cairo Is Standout
The Cairo squad showed its mettle by edging the rugged High Falls Firemen, 39-37, last Thursday night, despite a 26-point scoring spurge by Charlie Neff. All High Falls players were over six feet tall which meant the undersized Cairo cagers had to play superlative ball to overcome the handicap in height.

Otto Clippers, 42-35 victors over the speedy Pioneers of Kingston, feature a well-balanced starting array in which every man is capable of hitting double figures in scoring. The Terwilliger brothers and Harry Engle are skillful enough to score against any defense. The Clippers were beaten in the 1946 tournament opener but their seasonal record and performance to date indicate they are determined to battle their way into finals.

Truman Deletes Kilian From List

Officer's Name Is Taken From Promotion Paper

Washington, March 31 (AP)—President Truman today deleted the name of Lt. Col. James A. Kilian, former commander of the Litchfield replacement depot, from an army promotion list.

Kilian's name was included originally in a list of 683 lieutenant colonels submitted to the White House by the War Department for promotion to the rank of full colonel. The president removed Kilian's name before sending the list to the Senate for action.

Kilian was convicted by court martial of permitting "crude" punishment of enlisted men detained at Litchfield in England during the war. The sentence was handed down August 29, 1946, and the case is now pending on appeal.

Kilian was sentenced to be reprimanded and to pay a fine of $500. The Senate previously held up action on a promotion list because Kilian's name was included.

President Truman's Secretary, Charles C. Ross, in announcing the president's action, told reporters: "Col. Kilian's name was on the list. It is on there no longer. The president took it off."

He explained that under the present laws the War Department was required to submit the names of officers eligible for promotion by reason of seniority.

War Secretary Patterson is advocating legislation which would permit the army to select men for promotion on a basis of merit.

Play Review

by SYLVESTER HOWARD

When James Mason appeared in flowing white robes in the play "Bathsheba," the audience whistled. He had many beautiful costumes during the evening; each one designed to bring his dark, handsome body an appropriate garb. Although "Bathsheba" is a play about King David and his breaking of the Mosaic law, the chief event of the evening was seeing Mr. Mason luxuriating in a couch eating grapes.

The theatre is a place of entertainment. One of the more delightful things of life is a magnificent human being. When such a creature is in the theatre, no doubt there is a certain entertainment value. If Mr. Mason had wished merely to give the American public the opportunity to see him dressed up as a king, he has succeeded. If he wished to give us a chance to see what he is as an actor, he has failed. The audience was obviously delighted with him as a person, but the theatre is merely to give the American public an exhibition. "Bathsheba" tells the story of King David's illicit love for the wife of a captain in his army. That captain, Uriah, is so overwhelmed with admiration for his king that he will not believe the story of his evil. David is filled with remorse at having betrayed the young man, but Uriah goes to his death, believing that his king could do no wrong.

The play emphasizes the human weakness of kings. David is shown to be a luxury loving man with little respect for the law of God or of the nation. It is probably impossible to know what he was actually like, but one gets the feeling that the portrait was made to fit Mr. Mason's talents. He is not an imposing man. He looks as though he were a man for witty drawing room comedy. Consequently, the play is filled with wise cracks and with bits of characterization to show that David was not a heroic king. The result seems to show that Mr. Mason is not a heroic actor.

Except for the king, the other people were nothing more than stage props. Everyone was splendid biblically costumed. The sets were extravagant, as becomes an oriental court, and pretty girls floated in and out. As a pageant, it was easy to look at. Pamela Kellins as Bathsheba had very little to do, the more important roles going to Phil Arthur as Uriah, and Thomas Chalmers as the king's adviser. Everything, however, was subordinated to the star. Mr. Mason has finally come to New York. It is too bad he could not have chosen a better play.

500 Snakes Captured
Okeene, Okla., March 31 (AP)—Rattlesnake hunters, most of them armed only with forked sticks, captured nearly 500 of the reptiles yesterday in the Gyp Hills of northwest Oklahoma. The rattlesnake roundup, sponsored annually by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, attracted 2,000 persons from 17 states. Only one snakebite victim was reported and a physician said his wound was minor. The Junior Chamber of Commerce pays 50 cents a pound for the rattlers and sells them to circuses, zoos and laboratories. The hunters generally catch the snake by placing a forked stick behind its head, then picking it up and placing it in a sack or cage.

Appropriation Bill Blocks House and Easter Recess

Washington, March 31 (AP)—A $2,471,498,548 appropriation bill including the first big step in a Republican drive against government "press agents" stands today between the House and an Easter recess.

If it's passed and sent to the Senate by tomorrow evening, the House will adjourn Wednesday for a one-week holiday, returning on Thursday, April 10.

While there was likelihood of long debate over several provisions of the bill, House leaders were confident they could get it behind them on schedule and get their branch out of town for the first vacation since Congress convened early in January.

The Senate, still deep in debate on David E. Lillenthal's nomination to head the Atomic Energy Commission, and with President Truman's Greek-Turkish aid program almost ready for consideration, plans only a long Easter week-end beginning Thursday night.

The debate-provoking provisions of the House appropriation bill, a deficiency measure financing miscellaneous agencies for the three remaining months of the current fiscal year, include:

1. An order directing the Veterans Administration to reduce the number of its public relations employees from 281 to 100.

2. A cut of more than half a billion dollars in VA allotments, mainly from the pension fund and from funds for benefit payments under the GI Bill of Rights.

3. Refusal to appropriate additional money for the National Labor Relations Board, whose 1948 allotment was cut sharply in a separate bill passed by the House last week but still pending in the Senate.

4. Rejection by the appropriations of a Budget Bureau request for funds to pay court-approved salary claims of three former federal workers fired in 1943 at Congressional insistence. The three were Goodwin B. Watson, Robert M. Lewis and William E. Dodd, Jr. In refusing the claims, aggregating $2,158, the committee ignored a Supreme Court ruling.

Minor Fires Occupy City Fire Department

An unoccupied building at 281 Albany avenue, owned by William Newman was slightly damaged by fire Sunday. Firemen, called at 12:16 a. m., checked the blaze before it spread through the structure, part of the floor and siding were damaged.

A grass fire near Camp Haplyland, Clifton avenue was checked shortly after 8 p. m. Sunday, and at 12:33 a. m. today firemen checked a rubbish fire in the yard of the Kingston Scrap-Iron and Metal Company at Hasbrouck avenue and Murray street.

Another fire was literally delivered to Central Fire station Friday night. The blaze was checked shortly after 8 p. m. Sunday, and at 12:33 a. m. today firemen checked a rubbish fire in the yard of the Kingston Scrap-Iron and Metal Company at Hasbrouck avenue and Murray street.

Verdict Is Returned Regarding Faria Sale

An action in fraud involving a question of sale of a Clontondale fruit farm was tried in Supreme Court and a verdict was returned Friday. Louis Cremo and Samuel Edelson of New York brought an action against Herbert L. Ackerman and others alleging that fraud was involved in the sale of the farm property. The questions submitted to the jury, three in number, were whether there had been 3950 fruit trees on the farm, all bearing but 700, and if not whether there was the element of fraud involved. The jury answered the first question to the effect that the trees were a representation, precluded any answers to the remaining questions. Arthur Ames appeared for plaintiff and Peter H. Harp for defendant.

All jurors were excused for the term by Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth and court recessed until 11 o'clock this morning.

Patrolman Saves Woman From Suicide Jump

New York, March 31 (AP)—A young woman who refused to give her name or any information about herself was prevented from jumping from the Manhattan Bridge today by Patrolman Frank Mitchell.

Mitchell said he caught the woman, a blue-eyed brunette about 22 years of age, as she had one leg slung over the rail of the bridge, which connects Brooklyn and Manhattan. He quoted her as saying, "leave me alone. I want to die."

Robert May, 23, who gave no address, said he had seen the young woman this morning in a drug store and, when she told him she was ill, took her to Roosevelt Hospital. She refused to enter the hospital, however, he said, and he followed her to a subway and then to the bridge, where he called the patrolman.

Strike Bill Is Offered

Washington, March 31 (AP)—Legislation aimed at heading off the threatened nationwide telephone strike April 7 was introduced today by Rep. Hartley (R-N. J.), chairman of the House Labor committee. The bill would permit the attorney general to obtain an injunction to block a strike, also provides for conciliation for a 30-day period after an injunction is issued by any federal judge. The labor committee will start consideration of the legislation tomorrow.

closed since workers are U.M.W. members. Youngstown, Ohio, steel sources also expected some reduction in output.

Lexington, Ky., where little coal has been delivered recently, faced a shortage. Many dealers said they had only two to four days supply on hand. Officials said the situation was not expected to become serious if mild weather prevails.

A spokesman for the Pennsylvania Railroad said that line would not be critically affected by the mine shutdown but that some train crews would be laid off since they would not be needed to haul coal from the mines.

'Not Much Hardship'
A leader of the Association of Western Railroads said at Chicago, however, the shutdown "won't bring much hardship."

The mourning period, which Lewis contended is provided for in the U.M.W. contract, was labeled a "strike" by Walter Thurmond of Charleston, W. Va., secretary of the Southern Coal Producers Association. He called the "work stoppage" a peculiar method of paying respect to the dead.

In Portland, Ore., Sidney Woodburn, president of the Chamber of Commerce, urged Lewis in a telegram to ask miners to continue work and donate their wages to the families of Centralia victims.

Attorney Petitions For Review of Case Of Army Deserter

Syracuse Man Later Became Paratrooper and Gained Citations, Lawyer Declares

Syracuse, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—A War Department review of the court martial sentence of a soldier who became a paratrooper hero after allegedly deserting a guard post at West Point is sought by a Syracuse attorney.

The soldier, James Minker, 25, of Syracuse, was found guilty at West Point last week of desertion from May 5, 1942, to July 23, 1946, and was sentenced to two years at hard labor and a dishonorable discharge with all pay and allowances forfeited.

Attorney Anthony F. Caffrey, who said yesterday he would seek War Department review so that he could present "all the facts," reported that during the years Minker was accused of being a deserter he actually was serving with the paratroopers in Europe under the name of James H. Rowley.

Caffrey said he later was a prisoner of war, received a presidential unit citation, two battle stars, the good conduct medal and was honorably discharged under the assumed name upon his return to the United States.

Minker was turned over to military authorities last month after pleading guilty in Onondaga county court to a charge of illegal possession of firearms.

Caffrey said Minker told police after his arrest, that he believed he was wanted by army authorities as a deserter.

Mrs. Elia Minker said her son had asked for a transfer to the paratroopers while assigned to guard duty at West Point Military Academy. After his request was rejected he came back to Syracuse in May, 1942 and enlisted under the assumed name.

"Jimmy told me that he would rather receive a death sentence than a dishonorable discharge," Mrs. Minker said.

"We know he deserted his post but he didn't desert his country," she declared.

In Washington, War Department officials declined comment.

2,000 Miners Strike
Essen, Germany, March 31 (AP)—About 2,000 German miners struck today at Dortmund to enforce demands for increased food for their families, but 4,000 others returned to four pits that had been closed. Some 10,000 persons including railway and wagon factory workers marched through the streets of Krefeld, on the west bank of the Rhine, waving banners protesting food shortages. A similar demonstration was planned later today in the coal center of Duisburg. A protest was canceled at Cologne.

Collyer Body Removed
New York, March 31 (AP)—The body of 65-year-old Homer Collyer, upper Fifth avenue recluse, was removed from an undertaking establishment to Cypress Hills Cemetery today to remain until funeral services tomorrow afternoon. Planning World Student Conference

U.N. Faces Busy Week; Palestinian Case May Be Filed

Final Vote on U. S. Plan to Administer Japanese Island Will Be Taken

Lake Success, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—The United Nations today moved into a busy week which promised to bring formal filing of the Palestine case and a final vote on the American plan to take over the Japanese mandated islands.

Approval of a special general assembly session by Russia, France and China appeared to be the only condition holding up Great Britain's long-anticipated presentation of the explosive Holy Land question to the U. N.

The United States earlier agreed to the step and Secretary-General Trygve Lie's office was awaiting sanction from the other three major-power delegates, who had referred the matter to their home governments. With approval by the trio, Britain said she would file the case asking for the special session. Lie then will poll the 55 member nations.

No difficulty was expected in getting the necessary 28 concurring votes for the special session. The date of the meeting will depend on the time required for all this procedure, but some observers believed it might be as early as May 1.

It was learned that the British note to the U. N. would make only two points — ask for the special session to set up machinery for handling the case, and ask the assembly to take up the issue at its regular meeting in September.

On the Pacific Islands case, American officials were confident that the security council would reach a vote at its meeting on Wednesday.

Actually there has been no direct opposition to the United States plan for taking over the 634 islands comprising the Marshalls, Marianas and Carolines under U. S. trusteeship, with Washington as sole administrator. The terms would amount to virtual annexation.

Today's calendar listed a closed meeting (3 p. m.) of the working committee of the Atomic Energy Commission, where France was expected to offer a compromise resolution designed to bring together Russia and the majority over the work program.

Bard College to Sponsor World Student Conference

Annandale-on-Hudson, March 31 (AP)—"What Has Happened to the Four Freedoms" will be the subject of an inquiry by a world student conference to be held at Bard College on the week-end of April 12. (Representatives from more than 24 countries have indicated their intention of participating.)

Isidor Lubin, economic adviser to President Roosevelt and Ferdinand Eberstadt, Wall Street investment banker, will address the general sessions. The discussions will be carried on primarily by students from many countries who will present first-hand information. On the second anniversary of the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt, a pilgrimage is to be made by the delegates to the nearby estate at Hyde Park to lay a wreath on the grave of the late president.

Russia Has No Students.
The only major country not represented will be the Soviet Union. In reply to the invitation which was extended by the college, the Soviet Embassy in Washington stated that they could not participate, since no Soviet students are in this country.

The conference, sponsored by the Social Science Division of Bard College, will attempt to find the status of the Four Freedoms two years after the end of the war. Its aims is to break down the barriers between nations and promote understanding of the problems of other countries.

Simultaneous Sessions
Four commissions will be in simultaneous session, probing into the problems of each of the Freedoms. Moderating the commission to study the Freedom from Fear will be Dr. Felix E. Hirsch, one-time political editor of the Berliner Tageblatt, and at present professor of history at Bard. Dr. Adolf Strumthal, noted economist and former editor of International Information, will lead the seminars of the commission on the Freedom from Want.

A Polish lawyer and specialist on information, Eva R. Hofberg, will head the commission on the Freedom of Speech. The Reverend Frederick Quentin Chaffin, theologian and professor of religion at Bard, has been named to direct the discussions on the Freedom of Religion.

"America's Contribution to the Four Freedoms" is the subject of the opening address to be given by Ferdinand Eberstadt who served as assistant to Owen D. Young at the Reparations Conference in 1920 and vice-chairman of the War Production Board. On the second day, Isidor Lubin who was a representative of the United States at the 1945 Moscow conference will speak on the "World Prospects of the Four Freedoms."

Rosenau Is Chairman
James Rosenau of Bard, chairman of the conference, reported that delegates would be present from countries as distant as Burma and Australia. Although he expressed regret that the Soviet Union would not be represented, Mr. Rosenau said: "We will have students from many areas which constitute problems for the United Nations. For example, an Arab and a Zionist will report on the Palestinian question."

Helping in the organization of the conference have been Bard students from Austria, Argentina, China, Holland, England, Switzerland, France, Greece, Egypt, and Australia.

Iceland Has Volcano

Reykjavik, Iceland, March 31 (AP)—Sightseers flocked to get a look at blazing Mount Hekla today, while geologists set up stations near the 4,764-foot volcano in expectation that the eruption which began Saturday might continue for several months. The flaming peak—in eruption for the first time since 1845—continued to toss thousands of tons of lava, rocks and ashes high into the air, spreading a heavy pall over a wide area to the south, making coastal navigation difficult and polluting drinking water. In Copenhagen, some 1,250 miles away, a fine rain of dust spread over the city. Scientists attributed it to the eruption of Hekla.

Florida citrus fruits need cold nights to bring out their color and true flavor.

'Timid Soul' Drops His 5 Cents Anyway

"The Timid Soul," made famous through the Webster cartoon, must have paid Kingston a visit.

One of the standards, upon which will be mounted parking meters, was found to be in the wrong location and when it was torn up city employees found five cents in the tube. Someone with a "super" conscience, apparently parked a car by the standard and although the meters have not yet been installed, must have dropped his nickel down the pipe upon which the meter will eventually be placed.

Thousand Hold Memberships in Ulster Bureau

Memberships in the Ulster County Home Bureau now total 1000, according to an announcement by Mrs. William Powers, chairman of membership. This is an increase of 279 over last year and there are still three months remaining in which 1947 memberships may be received.

Mrs. Powers reports a growing enthusiasm for the kind of home-making activities taught by the Home Bureau. Twenty-seven projects cover the field so thoroughly that every woman is finding something that suits her needs.

Furthermore, Mrs. Powers advises every Home Bureau member to take advantage of her privilege and her responsibility during the coming month to get to the office an expression of her requests for lessons next year. Any educational project is acceptable that fulfills the aim of the Extension Service which is the improvement of the home and family life.

Groups of women who cannot get out during the day time are now organizing to meet for evening classes.
